PREDATORS OWNERSHIP

PREDATORS HOLDINGS LLC

On Dec. 7, 2007, Predators Holdings LLC purchased the Nashville Predators and Powers Management (the company that operates Bridgestone Arena) and took over the day-to-day operation of the National Hockey League team and Bridgestone Arena. Predators Holdings LLC includes local executives in finance, health care and private business. Members include: Herbert A. Fritch (Chairman), Thomas G. Cigarran, Christopher C. Cigarran, Tim Connelly, Joel and Holly Dobberpuhl, David Freeman, Bryan Grane, Joey A. Jacobs, J. Brent Jacobs, Scott D. Jacobs, John McEvoy, DeWitt Thompson IV, DeWitt Thompson V, John Thompson, W. Brett Wilson and Warren Woo.

HERBERT A. FRITCH

Herb Fritch formerly served as President of the Senior Segment at Cigna-HealthSpring following the acquisition of HealthSpring by Cigna in 2012. As Founder and CEO, Fritch built HealthSpring into a $4.6 billion enterprise at the time of its acquisition by Cigna. Beginning his career in 1973 as an actuary, Fritch has more than 40 years of experience in the managed healthcare business.

Fritch assumed the role of the Chairman of the team's Board of Directors effective Jan. 9, 2019. This role had been occupied by Tom Cigarran since March 2010. Fritch is also one of the Predators' Governors on the NHL Board of Governors. A graduate of Carleton College, Fritch and his wife, Barbara, are also renowned for their philanthropic efforts through the Herbert A. (Herb) Fritch Family Foundation and are members of United Way's Tocqueville Society.

THOMAS G. CIGARRAN

Tom Cigarran is a co-founder and former Chairman, President and CEO and Director of AmSurg Corporation, the nation's largest outpatient surgery center company and a major national provider of physician services to hospitals, surgery centers and other healthcare facilities. He is also a co-founder, former Chairman, President and CEO and Director of Healthways, Inc. He serves as an Advisor to Cressey & Company, a healthcare-focused private equity firm. Cigarran was elected Chairman of the Nashville Predators' Board of Directors in March 2010 and served as chairman for over nine years until Jan. 9, 2019. He is also one of the Predators' Alternate Governors on the NHL Board of Governors.

Cigarran has been an active supporter of public education in Nashville for more than 20 years, having served as the Education Chairman of the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce and being a founder and Chairman of the Operating Board of Alignment Nashville, an organization that helps organize the activities of more than 150 Nashville area non-profit organizations, the business community and governmental agencies in support of public education. He has also led the Haiti Education Mission of the Cathedral of the Incarnation for more than 15 years and sponsors a primary and a secondary school in Haiti. He has served on the Board of Directors of the Vanderbilt University Medical Center; chaired the advisory board of the Owen School Healthcare MBA Program at Vanderbilt; and served on the boards of the Harpeth Hall School, Alive Hospice and the Mental Health Association of Middle Tennessee. He has also twice served as Chair of the Nashville Health Care Council.

Cigarran received a Bachelor of Science degree from Villanova University an MBA from the New York University Graduate School of Business. He and his wife, Connie, are 43-year residents of Nashville, have two children and five grandchildren. The whole family loves Predators hockey.

CHRISTOPHER C. CIGARRAN

Chris Cigarran is the CEO of Imagine Health, the leading provider of next generation health plan solutions for large employers in the United States. Cigarran received his undergraduate degree from Bucknell University and his master's degree from Pepperdine University.

TIM CONNELLY

Tim Connelly enjoyed a 30-year career at Brown Brothers Harriman & Co. (BBH), a leading global financial institution. He was a General Partner of the firm and is currently a Limited Partner at BBH. More recently, he was appointed and served as CEO of the Massachusetts Technology Collaborative, an agency charged with promoting the innovation and technology economy in the Commonwealth.

Connelly serves on a number of philanthropic boards that reflect his interests and priorities, including the United Way of Massachusetts Bay, St. Sebastian's School, Carroll School, Cotting School and New England Disabled Sports; he also is a Corporator Emerti at Northeastern University.

A history of sports runs deep in the Connelly family as his father was a three-sport athlete and long-time baseball coach at Northeastern University who was elected to the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. Connelly was a three-sport athlete (football, hockey and baseball) in college and played professional hockey in Germany following graduation. Complimenting his Nashville Predators ownership position, Connelly is also a minority owner of two minor league baseball franchises: Wichita Wind Surge in Wichita, Kan., and the Port Charlotte Stone Crabs in Port Charlotte, Fla.

A graduate of Williams College with a bachelor's degree in history and Northeastern University with an MBA, Connelly resides in Wellesley, Mass., with his wife, Amie, and their three sons.

JOEL & HOLLY DOBBERPUHL

Joel and Holly Dobberpuhl are now residents of Montecito, Calif., after living in Nashville for more than 20 years as active members of several charities through their family foundation. Joel Dobberpuhl is the CEO and Portfolio Manager of Jetstream Capital, a Nashville-based investment firm he started in 2003. Joel and Holly Dobberpuhl received their degrees from Southern Methodist University in 1988.

DAVID S. FREEMAN

David S. Freeman is the CEO of 36 Venture Capital and the former founder and CEO of Commodore Medical Services, a medical waste management company he sold in 2007. Freeman received his undergraduate degree from the University of Tennessee and a Juris Doctor degree from the Vanderbilt University School of Law. Freeman serves on the Board of Trustees of the United Way of Metropolitan Nashville and Brandi Chastain's ReachUp Foundation.

PREDATORS OWNERSHIP

BRYAN GRANE

Bryan F. Grane is the Founder of East Orchard Capital (EOC). Prior to founding EOC, he was the Owner, Chairman and CEO of CST. Under Mr. Grane's leadership, CST became one of the premier intermodal logistics companies in the United States and was ultimately sold to Forward Air Corporation (FRWD) in 2014. Prior to joining CST, Mr. Grane was an investment banker at William Blair & Company, where he worked as a Mergers and Acquisition Analyst and achieved Series 7 and 63 certifications.

Mr. Grane is the Founder of the St. Rita Mercy Foundation, a Board Member at Leadership Roundtable and is an eight-year member of the Young Presidents' Organization.

Mr. Grane earned his Bachelor's of Business Administration in finance and business economics from the University of Notre Dame, where he graduated Summa Cum Laude and a member of Beta Gamma Sigma (International Honors Society). He also holds a Master of Business Administration from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.

JOEY A. JACOBS

Joey A. Jacobs is retired after 45 years in the healthcare industry. Jacobs serves on the Board of Directors of Cumberland Pharmaceuticals, Inc., The Jason Foundation and Monroe Carrell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt. Jacobs was nominated by former Tennessee Governor Bill Haslam and confirmed by the Tennessee General Assembly to serve on the Middle Tennessee State University Board of Trustees.

Jacobs is married to his wife of 44 years, Debbie, and they have two sons, Brent and Scott. Outside of work, he enjoys spending time with his family and friends while also tending to his herd of Black Angus cattle at the family's farm in Warren County, Tenn. Additionally, Jacobs is an active church and community member, serving on several not-for-profit boards and giving to numerous local community and charitable organizations, such as the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt, The Jason Foundation and Morrison Elementary School. Jacobs also established the Joey Jacobs Chair of Excellence in Accounting at Middle Tennessee State University.

J. BRENT JACOBS

Brent Jacobs serves as Vice President of Acquisitions and Development at Surgery Partners, previously Symbion Healthcare before its acquisition in November 2014. Prior to joining Symbion in 2012, Mr. Jacobs worked as a Senior Associate in the Assurance practice at PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP. He has more than 10 years of experience in accounting and finance and is currently focusing on merger and acquisitions, including transactional due diligence and financial analysis. Mr. Jacobs is a graduate of Samford University, where he received a Bachelor of Arts in business administration and earned a Master of Accounting from the Brock School of Business. He also holds an MBA from the University of Florida's Hough Graduate School of Business.

Mr. Jacobs is married to his wife of eight years, Katie. They have two daughters and one son: Emmaline, Joey Kate and Hunt. Mr. Jacobs enjoys spending time with his family and friends, playing hockey at Ford Ice Center and racing at the local Fairgrounds Speedway Nashville. Mr. Jacobs is an active church and community member, participating in numerous community service projects throughout the years.

SCOTT D. JACOBS

Scott D. Jacobs serves as the Chief Financial Officer at TrustPoint Hospital in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Prior to joining TrustPoint in December 2016, Mr. Jacobs worked as a financial manager in the Financial Planning and Analysis Department at Vanderbilt University Medical Center in Nashville. He is a graduate of the University of Georgia, where he received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting. Mr. Jacobs maintains an inactive certified public accountant license and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).

Mr. Jacobs enjoys spending time with his family and friends, cycling and playing hockey for multiple teams at Ford Ice Center and Centennial Sportsplex. He is an active church and community member, most recently competing in the annual Bike to Jack & Back Ride, benefitting the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

JOHN McEVOY

With a career in wireless communications spanning over 20 years, John M. McEvoy is a specialist in the recommendation and implementation of integrated mobile retail stores. Mr. McEvoy began his career in mobile communications in 1995 as a successful Sales Manager for Pacific Bell Wireless and quickly realized the market for wireless was larger than anticipated. In 1997, Mr. McEvoy founded The Mobile Solution Corporation to capitalize on this need. As President and CEO of TMS, he oversaw all operational aspects of the organization, operating debt free and expanding the company rapidly. The Mobile Solution Corporation grew nationwide to over 3,000 employees and over $500 million in revenue by 2006.

Embracing personal core values of integrity, innovation and growth, Mr. McEvoy founded his real estate investment company, 1551 Fourth Avenue, Inc., in 2004. Currently Mr. McEvoy oversees an extensive portfolio of commercial, residential and multi-family real estate. In addition, Mr. McEvoy has a diverse investment portfolio in technology, oil and natural gas and entertainment. Mr. McEvoy currently holds a minority ownership interest in the Colorado Rockies, having previously owned an interest in the San Diego Padres.

The Nashville Predators represent Mr. McEvoy's first investment in the Nashville area. However, when Mr. McEvoy visited Nashville, he was struck by the vibrancy and economic growth of the city. Mr. McEvoy's decision to invest in the Predators was primarily driven by the strength of the organization and team, but was also impacted by the prospects for Nashville as a whole.

DeWITT C. THOMPSON, IV

DeWitt (De) C. Thompson, IV is a retired chairman of Thompson Machinery Commerce Corporation. Thompson is a director of Aries Technologies. He is a graduate of Vanderbilt University. Thompson and his wife, Jackie, reside in Nashville.

DeWITT C. THOMPSON, V

DeWitt C. Thompson, V is Chairman and CEO of Thompson Machinery Commerce Corporation, a Caterpillar heavy machinery and power systems distributor in Tennessee and Mississippi. He serves as Chairman for Aries Clean Energy. Thompson founded PureSafety in 1999 and served as Chairman until 2011.

Thompson is also a Director of Nikola Motor Company, The Shaw Group and Wealth Access. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from the School of Engineering at Vanderbilt University. Thompson and his wife, Jamee, son, DeWitt, VI and daughters Helen, Grace and Laura reside in Nashville.

PREDATORS OWNERSHIP

JOHN P.G. THOMPSON

John Thompson is the CEO of MTA Distributors, based in Nashville. MTA Distributors is the exclusive Honda engine distributor for Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida, New Mexico, Arizona, southern California and Las Vegas. He is an owner and director of both Thompson Machinery and Aries Clean Energy.

Mr. Thompson serves on the board of an area non-profit, the Blake McMeans Foundation. A graduate of Vanderbilt University, Thompson resides in Nashville with his wife, Margaret, and their four children.

W. BRETT WILSON

W. Brett Wilson is a well-known Canadian businessman based in Calgary, Alta., with homes in several cities, including Nashville. He is currently Chairman of Canoe Financial, an investment management firm with more than $7.0 billion in assets under management. A career energy-focused investment banker, he has invested extensively in the energy and real estate sectors through his private merchant bank, Prairie Merchant Corporation. He received the prestigious Order of Canada in 2011 and has enjoyed wide recognition for his philanthropic efforts, including several honorary doctorates.

MANAGEMENT

DAVID POILE
PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS, GENERAL MANAGER & ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Set to begin his 39th consecutive season as an NHL general manager, making him the longest tenured GM in League history, Nashville Predators President of Hockey Operations/General Manager David Poile has spent 38 consecutive years at the helm of a franchise (23 with Nashville, 15 with Washington) dating back to Aug. 30, 1982 when he was hired by the Washington Capitals. He is the only general manager in NHL history to lead two different clubs for over 1,000 games and 500 victories, and on March 1, 2018 against Edmonton, Poile won his 1,320th game, making him the all-time winningest GM in League history.

Nashville's past three regular seasons have been among the best not only in franchise history but across the entire NHL. Following the Preds' 35-26-8 (78 points) record in 2019-20, Nashville has earned a combined 295 points since the start of the 2017-18 campaign, the fourth-most in the League, and its 135 wins are the fifth-most. In 2018-19, Poile engineered a team that won the Central Division title for the second consecutive campaign and hit the 100-point mark for the seventh time. The season before, Poile's squad won the Presidents' Trophy and Central Division title for the first time in franchise history en route to the No. 1-seed and home ice advantage in the playoffs. The Predators recorded 53 wins and 117 points in 2017-18 – both franchise records – and were led by Vezina Trophy winner and franchise icon Pekka Rinne.

After the Predators became Western Conference Champions and Poile advanced to his first Stanley Cup Final in 2016-17, he was named the 2017 General Manager of the Year at the NHL Awards in Las Vegas, his first such honor after being a finalist for the award in each of its first three years of existence (2010, 2011 and 2012), while also receiving the sixth-most votes in 2015. Poile is one of the most influential men in the sport, evidenced by his spot on the NHL's Competition Committee all 14 years of its existence, appointment to the Hockey Hall of Fame Selection Committee in 2014, and involvement with USA Hockey, highlighted by his service as General Manager of the United States Olympic Team for the 2014 Winter Games in Sochi, Russia. On Aug. 9, 2018, Poile's longstanding support and commitment to hockey in the United States was etched in history with his nomination to the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2018. Surrounded by friends and family, he was formally inducted at a ceremony held on Dec. 12, 2018 at the JW Marriott in Nashville.

While Poile continues to use effective drafting and development of home-grown players as the foundation for the Nashville Predators, his blueprint for success has necessitated the welcoming of high-octane offensive performers to the organization and bold trades in recent seasons. Dating back to the 2013 trade deadline, Poile and his staff have been aggressive in acquiring young, talented prospects with high offensive ceilings, and proven NHL stars via trade and free agency to supplement Nashville's drafted talent. This formula helped the Predators to their longest postseason run in franchise history – their first trip to the Stanley Cup Final in franchise history – in 2016-17, shattering nearly every Predators postseason record in the process. Under Poile's guidance, the Predators have reached the postseason in each of the past six seasons and 13 of the past 16 campaigns.

Nashville's longstanding philosophy of building around home-grown players has paid dividends during its current postseason streak, the second-longest active run in the NHL. Poile drafted the first of the franchise's many pillars in the eighth round (258th overall) of the 2004 NHL Draft, selecting Rinne, who is entering his 15th NHL season and holds nearly every franchise goaltending record. Poile constructed the Predators' defense corps by drafting Captain Roman Josi, who won the 2020 Norris Trophy as the League's top defenseman and signed an eight-year, $72.472 million contract – the largest in franchise history – on Oct. 29, 2019; Associate Captain Ryan Ellis, who set career highs in assists (34) and points in 2018-19; and Mattias Ekholm, who has emerged into one of the most reliable defensemen in the game at both ends of the ice and also established career highs in assists (36), points (44) and plus-minus (+27) in 2018-19.

Some of Poile's most impactful moves over the past five-plus seasons have been on the trade front, with his two most recent blockbusters being among the largest one-for-one trades in NHL history. On Jan. 6, 2016, Poile acquired the No. 1 center the team has coveted since Day 1 of the franchise by getting All-Star Ryan Johansen from the Columbus Blue Jackets, and then on July 28, 2017, he signed Johansen to an eight-year, $64 million contract. On June 29, 2016, Poile executed the largest transaction in franchise history by acquiring 2013 Norris Trophy winner P.K. Subban and giving Smashville a bonafide superstar both on and off the ice. Prior to those acquisitions, on April 3, 2013, Poile acquired emerging superstar Filip Forsberg, who has led the team in goals in four of the last six seasons and is the only player in team history to record five 25-goal seasons, from Washington. Forsberg, selected 11th overall in the 2012 NHL Draft, was rated the third-best player by Poile's staff but slipped due to a run of defensemen being drafted.

In addition to Johansen and Forsberg, the forward corps are anchored by Viktor Arvidsson, who set the franchise record for goals in a season with 34 in 2018-19, and center Matt Duchene, who signed a seven-year, $56 million contract – the largest free-agent deal in Preds history – on July 1, 2019. Other offensive mainstays include 2017 Stanley Cup Playoffs breakout star Colton Sissons (second round in 2012) and Rocco Grimaldi, who set a career high in points with 31 (10g-21a) during the 2019-20 season after signing as a free agent in July 2018. Of the 31 players used by Nashville in 2019-20, 19 were either drafted by the club or made their NHL debuts with the Preds.

Poile was busy yet again during the offseason leading into the 2020-21 campaign, acquiring two-way forward Luke Kunin from the Minnesota Wild and signing a number of players who the franchise believes fit the "Predator Way" mentality, including defensemen Mark Borowiecki and Matt Benning and forwards Nick Cousins and Luke Richardson.

The assertive, team-building plan implemented by Poile from the franchise's inception has helped the organization earn the reputation as one of the most stable, well-built teams in the NHL. Crucial to the plan's success is the ability to make the right selections and develop the young prospects. Poile has assembled a bright staff of personnel charged with those responsibilities, including Assistant General Manager/Director of Hockey Operations Brian Poile, Assistant General Manager/Director of Scouting Jeff Kealty, Director of Player Development/Milwaukee Admirals General Manager Scott Nichol and a team of gifted professional and amateur scouts across North America and Europe.

Poile has long been a proponent of a strong developmental system as a means to develop promising young players into productive NHL players. The Predators' primary developmental affiliate, the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals, captured the first Calder Cup title in franchise history in 2004 and revisited the final in 2006. During the 2019-20 season, which was canceled in May with the final regular-season games being played on March 11 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Admirals' 41-14-5-3 record and 90 points earned them the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy, awarded to the AHL regular-season champions. Head Coach Karl Taylor, who Poile hired to lead Milwaukee on June 29, 2018, won the Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award as the AHL's outstanding coach in his second season at the helm. Including the 2019-20 shortened campaign, the Ads have advanced to the Calder Cup Playoffs in 16 of the last 18 seasons, winning six division titles in that span. From 2002-03 to 2010-11, the Admirals became the first team in AHL history to post 40-or-more wins and 90-or-more points in eight consecutive seasons, each with a team predominately made up of Predators prospects.

Poile's wisdom and experience is clearly valued throughout the hockey world, as evidenced by his selection to the post of General Manager of the U.S. Olympic Team for the 2014 Sochi Games. He was associate general manager for the 2010 United States Olympic Team and helped select the team that would become one of the headline stories of the 2010 Vancouver Games, capturing the hearts of a nation en route to a silver medal. Poile was a member of the U.S. National Team Advisory Group for the third consecutive IIHF World Championship in 2014, served as associate GM for the American entries into the 2009 and 2010 editions of the tournament and as general manager at the 1998 and 1999 Worlds.

Since its establishment in 2005, Poile has helped guide the NHL Competition Committee, making him one of just two individuals to sit on the committee all 14 seasons of its existence. The steering body that formulates and recommends rule changes for approval by the NHL Board of Governors, the Competition Committee continues to be one of the most influential bodies in the game today having helped usher in innovations featuring on-ice innovations such as the regular-season shootout, hybrid icing and the grandfathering of visors. In March 2014, Poile received yet another prestigious honor by being appointed to the Hockey Hall of Fame Selection Committee and helped mold the Hall of Fame's 61st (2014) through 67th (2020) classes.

Poile's third straight General Manager of the Year nomination in 2011-12 came after the team finished with a 48-26-8 record (104 points), the third-best record in the Western Conference and fifth-best in the NHL, helping the Preds earn home-ice advantage in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In 2010-11, he was a finalist for the award after Nashville earned the fifth seed in the Western Conference (99 points) and gave up the third-fewest goals in the League (190) despite missing nearly 350 man-games due to injury, and in 2009-10, he constructed a team that was one of 11 to hit the 100-point mark despite having a payroll ranked 28th in the League, earning a spot as a finalist for the inaugural General Manager of the Year Award.

In 2006-07, Poile was recognized by The Sporting News as its "Executive of the Year," an honor he had received twice previously (1982-83 and 1983-84), which is determined through a vote of his peers, after the Predators finished the season with the second-most points in the Western Conference and tied for the third-most points in the entire League. Locally, Business TN magazine honored him as the magazine's "CEO of the Year" for 2006 based on his consistent and successful track record as the team's architect.

In 2001, Poile was a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award in recognition of his contributions to hockey in the United States. Poile has devoted his professional career to hockey and the NHL, particularly in non-traditional markets. His late father, Bud Poile, also a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award (1989) and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame (1990), served as general manager of two expansion franchises – first in Philadelphia (1967) and then in Vancouver (1970). Poile began his professional career as an administrative assistant with the Atlanta Flames expansion franchise in 1972 and spent 10 years with the organization before being named general manager of the Washington Capitals in 1982. The 2020-21 campaign will mark his 48th in the NHL.

For the 1982-83 season, Poile took the reins of a Washington team that had never made the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In his 15 years there, the Capitals advanced to the postseason 14 times. The 1997-98 Capitals, largely comprised of players Poile acquired, advanced to the Stanley Cup Final. During his 15-year tenure, the Caps compiled a record of 594-454-132 (.559), ranking among the NHL's top-five teams during that span.

Poile was instrumental in the League's adoption of the instant replay rule in 1991. He was awarded Inside Hockey's Man of the Year award for his leadership on the issue.

A graduate of Northeastern University in Boston, Poile was hockey team captain, leading scorer and most valuable player for two years, earning a place in the University's Hall of Fame. In June 2014, he received an honorary doctorate degree from American Sentinel University.

Poile also serves as an alternate governor for the team and in December 2007 added President of Hockey Operations to his title. For the past nine seasons, Poile has donated to Operation Homefront (which provides emergency assistance and morale programs to our U.S. troops), USA Hockey and the Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's for every Predators victory.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Nashville. The Poiles have two children – daughter Lauren and son Brian – and three grandchildren – Ellie, Charlotte and Wyatt.

SEAN HENRY
PRESIDENT, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER & ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

In 2019-20, his 10th season in SMASHVILLE, Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena President, Chief Executive Officer and Alternate Governor Sean Henry proudly watched the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena create countless GOLDEN moments. In the wake of the devastating tornadoes on March 3 and COVID-19 pandemic that followed, led by the passion and dedication of the greatest staff in all of sports, the organization worked, and continues to work, tirelessly in support of the Middle Tennessee community.

Henry is most proud of and grateful for that very community – all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and the 7th Man – for creating such an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Henry is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside the best employees in the sports and entertainment industry to reach our ultimate goal - to be the No. 1 sports and entertainment venue in the United States with its centerpiece being the Stanley Cup champion Nashville Predators hockey team.

The most recent highlight of Henry's career has been witnessing the Nashville Predators, Bridgestone Arena, Predators Foundation and Ford Ice Centers coming together to address the many needs of those impacted by the recent tornadoes and ongoing world health crisis. Although these groups have been committed to serving the community since Day 1, their response throughout this unprecedented time has been a shining light for Nashville and Middle Tennessee. In just six weeks following the tornadoes, more than $2.7 million was raised and delivered to the community, with the total surpassing $3.0 million in subsequent weeks. These ongoing, all-inclusive efforts have also featured support from Predators ownership, players, coaches, management and staff, as well as the NHL, other NHL teams and the generosity of Predators fans and partners.

Another highlight, which occurred in June 2019, was the successful approval by Metro Nashville Sports Authority of a new lease, which ensures that Nashville's team, the Predators, will remain at Bridgestone Arena through the year 2049. Most importantly, the new lease eliminates the Metro Davidson County General Fund's support and relieves local taxpayers of any financial responsibility for Bridgestone Arena and the Predators by utilizing existing in-arena revenue streams to maintain, improve and expand the building. Since the last agreement in 2012, the growth of the franchise and arena serve as testaments to a strong model of public-private partnership. As a result of this partnership and a community-wide embrace of the Predators, the creation of projects like the Ford Ice Centers in Antioch and Bellevue have and will continue to spark economic development and growth in communities throughout Tennessee.

Alongside an annual impact of over $600 million in tangible benefit to the community, the memories built within and around Bridgestone Arena are the intangible and possibly even more valuable impact that the growing success has created. The reach, power and passion of the amazing fan base continue to have SMASHVILLE's ripple affect extended in so many new ways. From the Nashville Predators Foundation presented by SmileDirectClub, to the Ford Ice Centers in Antioch and Bellevue, two of the busiest rinks in North America, and to the rising media ratings, the borders of SMASHVILLE's growth positively impact families and businesses all across the region.

For Henry, the cornerstone of our franchise has been the organization's commitment to the community through the Nashville Predators Foundation and the Nashville Predators youth hockey programs. During the non-traditional 2019-20 season, the Foundation donated over $4 million in cash and in-kind gifts throughout the Nashville community and surrounding areas. The organization's Hearts of Gold program also infused the area with more than 9,000 community service hours donated by employees, players and staff. Henry recently played a vital role in the Foundation's groundbreaking naming partnership with Nashville-based SmileDirectClub which introduced SuperGrants valued up to $100,000, allowing several Tennessee-based organizations to complete large-scale projects in support of education, health and cultural needs. This partnership will greatly expand upon the life-changing work that the Foundation has been committed to for over 20 years. Starting in 2016-17, Henry also contributed greatly to the decision to commit $500,000 over the course of five years to AMEND, an innovative YWCA primary prevention initiative dedicated to ending violence against women and girls in our community.

Henry was born a Nashvillian, although it took him 42 years to get here. Before leading his favorite staff in SMASHVILLE, he served for 11 years as the Executive Vice President and COO of the Tampa Bay Lightning, two years as the Vice President of Sales and Marketing with Unity Motion and 14 years with Volume Services Inc., where he worked with the Detroit Pistons, St. Louis Rams and the Washington Football Team.

Though much of his time is spent moving the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena towards its ONE GOAL alongside tireless and passionate SMASHVILLE employees, Henry is grateful for each day he has the opportunity to serve on the boards of the Nashville Predators Foundation, YWCA of Nashville and Middle Tennessee, Nashville Downtown Partnership, Nashville Sports Council, Nashville Chamber of Commerce, the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt, The Sports Fund and stay involved (along with his wife) in his children's schools, sports teams, marching band and clubs.

Despite the numerous titles and accolades Henry has achieved in his professional career, his reigning Father of the Year Award is one that has no equal and one that would not be possible without the support of his wife of 30 years Tracey Manning (a.k.a. the Suburban Diva) or his four children – Steven, Matthew, Amy and Jessica. How Henry managed to win Father of the Year despite his constant attempts to recreate National Lampoon's Vacation and repeated stories (all normally captured in the Diva's writings), is perhaps his greatest achievement. During quarantine, the Henry family ranked those vacations and selected Yellowstone National Park as the top destination. To memorialize their favorite trip, after years of owning bears ranging from small to life-sized, they adopted a real, live bear from the wildlife refuge center in the park.

MICHELLE KENNEDY
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Michelle Kennedy joined the Predators in March 2008 as In-House Counsel. Kennedy, also a certified public accountant (CPA), accepted the additional charge of Chief Financial Officer for the Predators and Powers Management in 2010 while continuing to serve as the organization's General Counsel. In 2017, Kennedy was named the organization's Chief Operating Officer. Kennedy serves as the organization's primary contact with the ownership group regarding governance and corporate compliance matters, in addition to overseeing all legal, finance and human resources matters and the Nashville Predators Foundation.

Kennedy often has the opportunity to speak to groups about SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion, the 7th Man and the amazingly unique bond that all of those groups share with the Predators organization. Without their support, Bridgestone Arena would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year on multiple occasions by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. The same fan support and unique bond referenced above solidified the organization's status as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean for a sixth consecutive year and also played a large role in the organization being named the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN.

"The pandemic has been challenging for everyone and I have missed spending time in Bridgestone Arena witnessing the enthusiastic support of the Loyal Legion. Despite the absence of physical gatherings in Bridgestone Arena, the Loyal Legion has inspired me in so many other ways over the last few months; because of their support and relentless engagement in our organization, we have been able to continue to impact our community in positive ways by providing support to assist a community that suffered from both tornadoes and a pandemic. I am proud to serve these incredible fans alongside the talented professionals in our organization as we continue striving toward our organization's ONE GOAL – to be the No. 1 sports and entertainment venue in the United States with its centerpiece as the Stanley Cup champion Nashville Predators hockey team."

Kennedy is also passionate about the work of the Nashville Predators Foundation; she, as well as every player, coach and employee of this great organization embraces the commitment to give back to the community that has given so much to it over the years. Kennedy shares the organization's belief that the work of the foundation is as integral to the mission of the organization as ice hockey and entertainment.

Kennedy began her career as an auditor at KPMG International, an advisory, audit and tax services company. After nearly five years in public accounting, she joined Vanderbilt University as an Associate Director of Athletics. For six years, she was responsible for oversight of the department's business operations, including finance, ticket operations, facilities, game and event management, as well as oversight of marketing and corporate sponsorship activities. Kennedy continued to work in a consultative capacity for Vanderbilt while attending law school from 2004-07.

During the 2019 Stanley Cup Playoffs, Kennedy was featured on NBC's female sports initiative platform, On Her Turf, in an episode of Hockey is for Her, which focused on women in and around the National Hockey League. Kennedy was also a speaker at the 14th Annual MIT Sloan Sports Analytics Conference in Boston in 2019. In addition to being named to the Sports Business Journal's "Game Changers Class of 2018," Kennedy was a finalist for Nashville Business Journal's 2015 CFO of the Year and was featured in Nashville Lifestyles Magazine in the 2016 Top 10 "Women in Business" issue. She has been an adjunct professor at David Lipscomb University, is a former member of the board of Make-A-Wish of Middle Tennessee and currently serves on the board of the Nashville Humane Association.

Kennedy obtained a Bachelor of Arts in economics from Vanderbilt University in 1992 and a Juris Doctorate from Vanderbilt University in 2007. A native of Hawesville, Ky., Kennedy now resides in Nashville.

CHRIS JUNGHANS
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER

Chris Junghans enters his 18th season with the company and fifth season as Executive Vice President and Chief Revenue Officer after seven seasons as Senior Vice President of Corporate Development for the Predators and Bridgestone Arena. Junghans is responsible for all marketing efforts and locally controlled revenue streams including tickets, sponsorship, premium seats and broadcast.

Junghans has been instrumental in growing and expanding the Predators' partnerships and helped build and introduce products like the 501 Club, Lexus Lounge and the Event-Level Bunker Suites. Junghans has led the organization's efforts in securing long-term partnerships with such companies as Bridgestone, Nissan North America, Dunkin', Anheuser Busch, Jack Daniel's, AT&T, Vanderbilt and Coca-Cola Bottling Co. Consolidated.

Junghans is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating such an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Junghans is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

In 2016, Junghans was essential in helping Nashville put on the best NHL All-Star experience in League history. Under his leadership, the Local Organizing Committee exceeded revenue expectations, allowing organizers to invest in additional resources that engaged hockey fans and showcased Bridgestone Arena, the Predators and the City of Nashville.

Prior to his role as Senior Vice President, Junghans led the Premium Seats division for the Predators and Bridgestone Arena. During his tenure as both a Director and Vice President, he was able to develop key products and services that led to a 100 percent revenue increase.

Junghans started his career with the Florida Panthers as a Ticket Sales Account Executive and quickly moved through the ranks. While in Florida, he developed programs and services that the Predators and Bridgestone Arena use today.

Born in Washington, D.C., Junghans is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Among his many accomplishments, including being selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 11th round of the 1993 Major League Baseball Draft as a catcher, he ranks his family and their accomplishments as things he's most proud of to date. He married his high school sweetheart, Carolina, in 1999 and they have three children – Lia (19), Alex (15) and Sofie (11).

Junghans currently serves on the board for Partnership 2020 and the Nashville Sports Council and is Vice President of Showcase Baseball of Tennessee. Junghans is also involved in AMEND, a group that will make Nashville the safest city in America for women. In his spare time, Junghans enjoys being on the lake and watching his kids play their respective sports.

NAT HARDEN
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKETS, PREMIUM SALES & YOUTH HOCKEY

An "original Predator" who started with the franchise in 1997, Nat Harden is responsible for all tickets sales, premium sales, business analytics, youth hockey and Ford Ice Center Antioch and Bellevue. Following the pause of the 2019-20 NHL season, under Harden's direction, the Nashville Predators not only worked with every Season-Ticket Citizen to offer payment and refund flexibility, but also safely and successfully re-opened both Ford Ice Centers to the public after the facilities had been closed for more than three months.

In the pandemic-shortened 2019-20 season, the Predators pushed their sell-out streak to 188 consecutive home games and were on track to complete one of the best sales seasons in franchise history; the year prior, the team sold-out of season tickets for the second time in franchise history. With Harden's leadership, average attendance for the Predators has remained at over 17,159 per game for the fourth consecutive season, despite the cancelation of the six final home games of the 2019-20 campaign.

Harden is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Harden is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Harden started with the Predators as a Fan Relations Account Service Executive before becoming a Corporate Account Executive in 2000. He was promoted to Season-Ticket Sales Manager prior to the 2003-04 season, Director of Ticket Sales in 2006, Vice President of Ticket Sales in 2007 and Senior Vice President of Ticket Sales in 2013.

A graduate of Mississippi State University with a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in sports administration, Harden played baseball for the Bulldogs from 1992-96. Since taking over the organization's season-ticket sales, he has required all employees to ring a Mississippi State/Nashville Predators cowbell after each successful sale.

Harden and his wife, Paige, reside in Nashville with their two children – son Ty (17) and daughter Clara Scott (14).

KEITH HEGGER
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Keith Hegger enters his fifth year with the Predators organization and is the Chief Financial Officer. As the organization's financial leader and a member of the Executive Leadership Team, Hegger oversees the finances for the Nashville Predators, Bridgestone Arena, Ford Ice Centers and the Nashville Predators Foundation empowered by SmileDirectClub.

Hegger is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Hegger is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Hegger's primary responsibilities include oversight of all financial reporting as well as the cash and fiscal management of the company and its assets. Since joining the Predators, he refinanced the local league-related credit facility for the organization and helped strengthen the relationship with the local banking partner. Hegger manages the budget and financial projection processes and is the team's primary contact with the NHL regarding financial reporting and projections. Hegger also has become increasingly involved in the organization's relationship with the city of Nashville, whose Sports Authority owns Bridgestone Arena.

Prior to joining the Predators, Hegger served as the Vice President of Finance for the NBA's Memphis Grizzlies. While with the Grizzlies he managed the financial and payroll operations of the company, which included participating in a new league credit facility and streamlining the financial close and reporting process. Hegger began his sports and entertainment career with the St. Louis Blues where he headed the accounting department as the Controller. With the Blues, in addition to heading the accounting department, he was involved in several unique growth projects such as the modeling and opening of the historic opera house in downtown St. Louis and the purchase of the Blues affiliated minor league team at the time. After receiving a bachelor's and master's degree in accounting from the University of Illinois, Hegger first entered the workforce as an auditor with PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Hegger and his wife, Lauren, reside in Franklin and have two daughters, Charlotte and Emily.

DAVE URSO
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

Dave Urso enters his fourth season as Senior Vice President of Operations, where he oversees all arena and event operations. His role also focuses on Bridgestone Arena's food, beverage and merchandise operations; managing contractual and relationship elements of partnerships with outside vendors and others; and continuing to build upon the Arena's quality control program.

Urso is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and the 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Urso is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Urso spent 21 years with Centerplate (1988-09), where he first began as a concessions manager at the Palace of Auburn Hills in Auburn Hills, Mich., until 1995. He then moved to Florida to work as a concessions manager for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars until 1997. The following year he started his five-year career with Tampa's Tropicana Field as their General Manager before becoming Centerplate's Vice President of Operations for the Southeastern United States in 2002. Most recently, Urso spent six years as a Regional Vice President for Delaware North Sportservice.

Urso and his wife, Tracy, reside in Brentwood. He has two sons – Jack, 16, and Austin, 22, who graduated from the University of Florida in 2019 and works for Lockheed Martin in Dallas, Texas.

DAVID KELLS
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF ENTERTAINMENT & MARKETING

David Kells has been with Bridgestone Arena and the Nashville Predators since 2005. During his tenure he has served as the Conversion Manager, Event Manager, Director of Marketing and Senior Vice President of Booking and currently serves as the Senior Vice President of Entertainment and Marketing.

Kells is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Kells is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Kells quickly developed a passion for live entertainment after working his first concert at the age of 18 and is proud to have been part of Nashville's live entertainment community ever since. Over the course of his career, he has worked for SFX Entertainment, Great Big Shows and AC Entertainment. Prior to joining the Bridgestone Arena staff, Kells helped manage the legendary EXIT/IN in Nashville and has been involved in producing numerous festivals such as Dancin' in the District (Nashville), Sundown in the City (Knoxville, Tenn.) and Birmingham City Stages (Birmingham, Ala.).

In addition to helping oversee Bridgestone Arena's rise to one of the top venues in the U.S. and the 2017 Pollstar Arena of the Year award, Kells has received personal recognition for his hard work in the industry. Kells was named the 2017 Pollstar Venue Executive of the Year, International Arena Buyers Association's Venue Executive of the Year in 2014, 2016 and 2019 and has been nominated for Pollstar's Facility Executive of the Year seven times. A lover of hockey from a young age, Kells' hockey career peaked in 1980 when he received the Most Improved Player Award from the Massena Minor Hockey Association in Massena, N.Y.

Kells and his wife, Lucy, reside in Inglewood and have one daughter, Kathryn.

HEIDI BUNDREN
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL COUNSEL

Heidi Bundren enters her sixth season with the Predators and fourth in her role as Senior Vice President, General Counsel in 2020-21. Bundren serves as the organization's chief legal advisor and provides direction on all legal matters impacting the team, Bridgestone Arena and Ford Ice Centers. Additionally, she is extensively involved in the organization's human resources, labor and employment matters and works closely with the vendors that work with the Predators and Bridgestone Arena on a daily basis. She joined the organization in 2015 as Senior Counsel, was promoted to Assistant General Counsel in 2016 and entered her current position in October 2017.

Bundren is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating such an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Bundren is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Bundren began her career as a consultant at KPMG Consulting (currently BearingPoint), which offers global business consulting and advisory services. Prior to working for the Predators, she spent two years as a briefing attorney at the First Court of Appeals of Texas and more than five years at Haynes and Boone, a Texas-based AmLaw 100 U.S. law firm. Bundren's practice has been varied, but has been concentrated in litigation and employment law matters.

Bundren earned a Bachelor of Arts in business administration and marketing from the University of Saint Thomas in 1999 and a Juris Doctorate from the South Texas College of Law in 2005. A native of Houston, Texas, she now resides in Nashville with her husband, Brandon, and two sons, Riley and Rhett. Bundren serves as a board member for both the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Nashville and Catholic Charities of Tennessee.

GERRY HELPER
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & SENIOR ADVISOR

A veteran of more than 40 years in hockey having been with the National Hockey League or one of its teams since 1979, Gerry Helper joined the Predators in October 1997, and has served in various communications roles. Helper has also served in various capacities on the board of the Nashville Predators Foundation empowered by SmileDirectClub and is currently the Chairman. Since its inception, the Foundation has distributed more than $7.2 million to Nashville area charitable and community service organizations, including a single-season record of $700,000 in 2019-20.

Helper is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating such an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Helper is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Throughout the first decade of the Nashville Predators' existence, Helper oversaw amateur and youth hockey efforts, including the creation of a street hockey program that delivers equipment to area YMCAs and Metro Parks centers, the launch of the Predators Cup for high school hockey teams and the introduction of the Get Out and Learn! program, which provides introductory lessons to young, first-time players at no cost, among other programs. Helper has also been active with USA Hockey, serving as a communications liaison for the United States' silver medal-winning team at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics and on USA Hockey's marketing council from 1994-99.

He was on the NHL's Communications Advisory Board from 2004-09 and was the organization's point person with the NHL for the 2003 NHL Entry Draft in Nashville, which drew more than 13,000 people to Bridgestone Arena. In 2011-12, the Predators Communications Department received the Dick Dillman Award, presented by the PHWA to the top communications department in each conference, and was a finalist again in 2012-13.

In his first stint with an expansion franchise, Helper spent nearly seven years (1991-97) with the Tampa Bay Lightning as the team's Vice President of Communications and assisted with the development of Tampa Bay's successful 1999 NHL All-Star Weekend bid. Helper also spent time as the NHL's Director of Information (1987-89) and Director of Public Relations (1989-91) after beginning his sports career with the NHL's Buffalo Sabres (1979-86). He also worked several Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Games throughout his career.

Helper served on the board of directors for the Middle Tennessee YMCA and Joe C. Davis Camp Widjiwagan and is currently on the board of the Nashville Sports Council. He is a 1979 graduate of St. Bonaventure University with a B.A. in mass communications and a 2000 graduate of Leadership Music.

Helper and his wife, Kim, reside in Franklin and have two daughters – Renee and Abigail.

BEN BOSSE
VICE PRESIDENT OF EVENT SERVICES & TECHNICAL OPERATIONS

Ben Bosse is entering his second season as Vice President of Event Services and Technical Operations for the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena. Bosse is responsible for overseeing the Event Services, Technical Operations, Information Technology and Game Presentation departments.

Prior to the 2018-19 season, Bosse oversaw Bridgestone Arena's $15 million audiovisual system renovation. Completed in two phases, this project featured the addition of LED ribbon boards, sound system upgrades and the installation of a new scoreboard, "FangVision." Throughout the process, which resulted in one of the most advanced audiovisual systems in the NHL, Bosse's primary focus was to ensure that every fan has an incredible experience at each Bridgestone Arena event.

Bosse is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 Professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are to today. Bosse is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Bosse started with the organization in 2010 as an intern in the marketing department. Upon obtaining his master's degree from Belmont University, he joined the organization as a full-time employee in 2011. Throughout his time in Smashville, he has served as Event Coordinator, Director of Event Services and Senior Director of Event Services and Technical Operations before assuming his current role.

In 2016, Bosse was recognized as a recipient of the International Association of Venue Managers' "30 Under 30" award. He also received the 2020 VenuesNow "Generation Next" Award for his leadership and achievement in the venue management field.

Bosse resides in West Nashville and has two children, Price and Charlie.

MANAGEMENT

JACK BURK
VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT

Jack Burk joined the Nashville Predators in the spring of 2008. Entering his 13th season with the team, Burk is the current Vice President of Corporate Partnerships, overseeing all partnerships sales and service initiatives for the Predators, Bridgestone Arena and Ford Ice Centers. Burk is member of the Nashville Predators Foundation empowered by SmileDirectClub Board of Directors and serves as President of the Nashville Jr. Predators youth hockey organization.

Burk is most proud of and grateful for all of Smashville, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as 2017 Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a 2017 Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Burk is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Burk attended Denison University in Granville, Ohio, where he earned a Liberal Arts degree in English Literature. Upon graduation, Burk began his career as an executive recruiter for Chicago-based executive search firm, Reilly Partners. After going on to perform executive search work for the NHLPA, Burk made a career transition into the sport and entertainment industry. Burk started with the Predators in the ticket sales department in 2008 and moved into the corporate partnerships department two years later. Following a series of ascending corporate partnerships roles, Burk was promoted to his current role of Vice President in March of 2020.

Burk is a proud resident of Nashville, where he lives with his wife, Lindsay, and their two beautiful children, Brody and Blake.

DANNY BUTLER
VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER OF FORD ICE CENTERS

Danny Butler is entering his 10th season with the Nashville Predators and his second as Vice President and General Manager of the Ford Ice Centers. Butler is responsible for all aspects of Ford Ice Center Antioch and Bellevue, from on-ice activities to facility operations. Butler oversaw the opening of Ford Ice Center Antioch in 2014 and all phases of design and construction of the newest ice rink, Ford Ice Center Bellevue, in 2019. Butler's background is in event management with a focus in facility operations.

Butler is most proud of and grateful for all of Smashville, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as 2017 Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a 2017 Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Butler is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

The Ford Ice Centers have hosted more than one million visitors annually at each building. Through outstanding partnerships with the Nashville Jr. Predators, GNASH (Nashville high school hockey), CCM World Invite, Gretzky Hockey School and many other events, the Ford Ice Centers continue to be two of the busiest ice rinks in the United States. Butler oversaw the design and implementation of all on-ice programing in the facilities, including one of the Top 5 largest learn-to-skate programs in the country, an adult hockey league that has more than 1,600 active members, Predators youth hockey system (that has grown youth hockey in Tennessee by over 35 percent), Nashville JV Hockey and countless other programs that further the expansion of hockey and skating in Middle Tennessee.

Butler's career in sports started early, spending a lot of time as a child with his father, who worked in multiple sports facilities all over the United States. In the summer, you would often see Butler right behind his father as he showed him the ropes of this fast-paced environment. Butler interned with the Tampa Bay Rays 10 years after his father helped open Tropicana Field. Following the internship, Butler was hired by the Tampa Bay Lightning, spending three seasons there before moving to Nashville. In 2011, Butler was hired by the Predators as an Event Coordinator, serving in that role for three years before becoming the General Manager of Ford Ice Center.

Butler is a graduate of Belmont Abbey College. He is married to his wife, Amy, and has three children – Blake, Everett and Collins. Butler was born in New York and currently resides in Nolensville.

DAVID CHADWELL
VICE PRESIDENT OF EVENT OPERATIONS

David Chadwell is the current Vice President of Event Operations for the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena, a role he assumed in August 2012. A well-rounded executive with experience in front and back of house operations including crowd control, event medical, event services, food and beverage, parking, public safety, quality assurance, space planning and ticket operations, Chadwell is responsible for the experience of every guest entering Bridgestone Arena. Chadwell was instrumental in designing and developing the Lexus Lounge, a state-of-the-art, 500-person capacity event-level lounge with annual revenues of more than $5 million. Chadwell joined Bridgestone Arena and the Nashville Predators full-time in 2003 as a Box Office Event Manager, advanced to Assistant Director of Ticketing in 2004 and to Director of Ticket Operations in 2005.

Chadwell is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Chadwell is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Before coming to Bridgestone Arena, the Nashville native worked at Starwood Amphitheatre and Creative Artist Agency. He also spent time on tour with the legendary B.B. King. A Middle Tennessee State University alumnus, Chadwell has a bachelor's degree in mass communication with an emphasis in music business. During his tenure with Bridgestone Arena, Chadwell has received three awards for leadership, as voted on by his peers. He has been a member of the International Ticketing Association (INTIX) since 2005 and International Association of Venue Managers (IAVM) since 2012.

Chadwell and his wife, Scarlett, reside in Mt. Juliet, love to travel and have two sons, Tyson and Maddox, and a daughter, Berkley.

KYLE CLAYTON
VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

Kyle Clayton is entering his fourth season as the Vice President of Operations for the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena. Clayton is responsible for ensuring Bridgestone Arena remains dedicated to the fan experience by implementing fan feedback seasonally through building upgrades. Each offseason, Bridgestone Arena focuses their renovation plans on enhancing areas for every person that enters the building. Clayton's background in accounting and budget management has enabled the organization to maximize each project's potential. His team's experience provides flexibility that allows many projects to be completed in extremely short offseasons while maintaining a busy concert schedule that consistently ranks in the Top 10 in the U.S. Clayton is also responsible for managing the Predators relationship with the Metro Sports Authority and handling other governmental affairs.

Clayton is most proud of and grateful for all of Smashville, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as 2017 Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a 2017 Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Clayton is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Clayton started with the organization in 2007 as an intern in the accounting department. Upon graduating from Tennessee Tech, he started full-time in April 2008. Throughout his time in Smashville, he has served as Staff Accountant, Senior Accountant, Assistant Director of Finance, Director of Financial Reporting, Senior Director of Operations and now Vice President of Operations. Clayton is honored to work for his hometown team that is ranked as the number one franchise in all of sports.

TIM FRIEDENBERGER
VICE PRESIDENT OF FACILITY OPERATIONS

Tim Friedenberger is in his eighth season serving as the Vice President of Facility Operations for the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena.

Friedenberger is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Friedenberger is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Friedenberger began his career in sports and entertainment with the Tampa Bay Lightning in 1992. During his tenure, he served as the lead Ice Technician, Director of Operations, and Vice President of Facility Operations.

He got his first taste of the entertainment industry while touring around the country with various types of productions, and cut his teeth on the business of ice as a project manager installing ice rinks throughout the United States, Europe and Asia. Friedenberger's passion and dedication to ice and hockey has earned him the respect of his peers throughout the NHL.

Friedenberger and his wife, Ginger, reside in Nolensville and have three sons who all love hockey and Tennessee.

BRITT KINCHELOE
VICE PRESIDENT OF GUEST SERVICES

Britt Kincheloe first joined the staff of the then called 'Nashville Arena' prior to its grand opening in December 1996. During her 24 years on staff, Kincheloe has worked at the switchboard, in the box office, in marketing and in group sales before joining the premium seats department. She has also led the corporate partnership and season-ticket service departments and currently leads the guest services team for all events at Bridgestone Arena.

Kincheloe is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Kincheloe is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University with a bachelor's degree in communication studies, Kincheloe is passionate about Mickey Fisher Memorial Scholarship initiatives and enjoys traveling and spending time with family.

REBECCA KING
VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS

A 15-year veteran of the Nashville Predators' Community Relations department, Rebecca King currently holds the title of Vice President of Community Relations and serves as Executive Director of the Nashville Predators Foundation empowered by SmileDirectClub. Through the Predators Foundation, King oversees all of the organization's community outreach, fundraising efforts and distribution of funding to local non-profits. She also supervises the Nashville Predators Foundation grant and SuperGrant programs, the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Twice Daily, annual KaBOOM! playground builds and all player charitable initiatives.

King is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace by the Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. King is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONE GOAL.

Prior to working for the Nashville Predators, King worked in community relations for the NBA's Golden State Warriors for five seasons. A graduate of University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a bachelor's degree in psychology, King resides in Nashville with her husband Eric, daughters Elliott and Taylor, son Beckett, three rescue dogs Ernie, Abby and Lucy and two rescue kittens, Piper and Smokey. She enjoys traveling, trail running, biking and hiking.

HOCKEY OPERATIONS

BRIAN POILE
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER & DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Brian Poile enters his 11th season with the Nashville Predators as the Director of Hockey Operations and his third as Assistant General Manager in 2020-21. In his role, Poile assists in all facets of the daily management of the hockey department, fiscal and strategic planning, player and staff personnel decisions, pro scouting, player contract negotiation and arbitration. Poile oversees the teams' top minor affiliation agreements with the AHL's Milwaukee Admirals, and ECHL's Florida Everblades. Poile also serves as the team's Alternate Governor for the Milwaukee Admirals and is on the AHL's Player Development Committee. Poile is the conciliator for hockey operations and the organization's leadership team, finance, legal, corporate partnerships, marketing, communications, community relations, broadcast, human relations, hockey facilities and Bridgestone Arena ventures. He also carries out his responsibilities as the team's Director of Hockey Operations, which include managing the club's roster, player payroll, budget, salary cap, the team's statistical and competitive analysis departments, the training, medical and equipment staffs, NHL CR administration, NHL CBA compliance and the department's day-to-day business operations.

During his tenure, Poile has been a part of every playoff series win in team history including Anaheim (2011), Detroit (2012), Anaheim (2016), Chicago, St. Louis and Anaheim (2017), and Colorado (2018). Most recently, Poile helped oversee the two most successful regular seasons in franchise history, which included a Presidents' Trophy (2017-18) and back-to-back Central Division titles (2017-18 and 2018-19). Also, in his time with the Predators management team, David Poile has been nominated for General Manager of the Year three times and won the award in 2017.

Poile began his career with the NHL's Dallas Stars under the leadership of Bob Gainey and Doug Armstrong as the Stars' Director of Team Services and then spent three seasons as the Stars' Director of Hockey Operations for their American Hockey League affiliate, the Utah Grizzlies, in Salt Lake City. In his role in Utah, Poile managed the Grizzlies hockey department, club roster, budget, player contracts, team travel, schedules, training camps, AHL/ECHL/CHL scouting and team and AHL administration. He also served as an AHL Alternate Team Governor, managed the Grizzlies affiliation agreements with the Dallas Stars (NHL), Montreal Canadiens (NHL), Florida Panthers (NHL), Lexington Men-o-War (ECHL), New Mexico Scorpions (CHL) and Idaho Steelheads (ECHL) as well as the administration and compliance for the AHL and Professional Hockey Players Association Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Hockey roots run deep in the Poile family. He is the son of Predators' President of Hockey Operations/General Manager David Poile, and grandson of Hockey Hall of Fame Inductee, 1947 Stanley Cup winner, Norman "Bud" Poile. Poile earned his bachelor's degree in communications at Boston College.

Poile his wife, Valerie, son Wyatt and dogs Wiley and Dexter reside in Nashville. The Poiles are members of the Nashville community and support many health and fitness groups, animal rescues, Best Buddies Tennessee, Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's and the Nashville Predators Foundation.

JEFF KEALTY
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER & DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Jeff Kealty enters his 20th season with the Nashville Predators organization and third as the team's Assistant General Manager and Director of Scouting in 2020-21, overseeing Nashville's professional and amateur scouting efforts.

Before being promoted to Director of Player Personnel on Dec. 1, 2017, Kealty spent 11 seasons as Nashville's Chief Amateur Scout; his scouting played an integral role in the acquisitions of Filip Forsberg, Ryan Johansen and Calle Jarnkrok. With his experience in amateur scouting all over the world and development of prospects within the Predators system, 10 players who were drafted by the Predators during his tenure are on the team's current roster, including Roman Josi, Ryan Ellis, Mattias Ekholm, Viktor Arvidsson, Colton Sissons, Dante Fabbro and Juuse Saros. The Predators have reached the Stanley Cup Final (2017), won the Presidents' Trophy (2018) and qualified for the playoffs in each of the last six seasons with Kealty overseeing the team's scouting.

The Boston native has overseen Nashville's past 13 drafts, helping to bolster the club's depth across the board, selecting 51 forwards, 32 defensemen and 13 goalies since his first year running Nashville's draft table in 2008.

Nashville continued to reap the benefits of Kealty and his staff's astute drafting over the past few seasons. Dante Fabbro, Nashville's 2016 first-round pick, skated in 64 games during his first full NHL season in 2019-20, logging consistent top-four minutes as a 22-year-old defenseman. Juuse Saros, another Kealty draft choice (2013 fourth-round pick), played in a career-high 40 games last season and further solidified himself as a full-time NHL goaltender, while prospects Alexandre Carrier (2015 fourth-round pick) and Eeli Tolvanen (2017 first-round pick) made their League debuts in 2016-17 and 2017-18, respectively. Forsberg – who has led the team in points five of the last six seasons and has tallied six 20-goal campaigns – was ranked third by Nashville's scouting staff for the 2012 NHL Draft, an integral component in his acquisition from Washington. Additionally, the blockbuster trade for Johansen was made possible by the scouting staff's knack for selecting world-class defensemen.

Other homegrown selections selected early in the Kealty era such as Josi, Ekholm, Ellis and Arvidsson have developed into core pieces of the Predators' roster. Looking down the entire organizational depth chart, Nashville is bullish on the future of Fabbro, Tolvanen, Rem Pitlick and its two most recent first-round picks, goaltender Iaroslav Askarov (11th overall in 2020) and forward Philip Tomasino (24th overall in 2019), amongst others in a deep crop of talent.

A first-round pick (22nd overall) of the Quebec Nordiques in 1994, Kealty was signed by Nashville as a free agent in 1998 following a four-year college career at Boston University. The former defenseman played one pro season for the Milwaukee Admirals (International Hockey League) before his playing career was cut short due to injury.

Kealty and his wife, Lynn, reside in Norfolk, Mass., and have three kids – twins James and Lydia and their youngest daughter, Hannah.

@RealScottNichol

SCOTT NICHOL
MILWAUKEE ADMIRALS GENERAL MANAGER/DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Scott Nichol enters his third season as General Manager of the Milwaukee Admirals and eighth as the Predators Director of Player Development in 2020-21. Nichol will manage the Predators' primary development affiliate, the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals, in addition to his current role as Director of Player Development. During Nichol's seven seasons of guidance in his player development role, he has helped players such as Filip Forsberg, Viktor Arvidsson and Colton Sissons secure full-time spots in the NHL and lead the Predators to the postseason in each of their last six campaigns.

Last season, Nichol engineered a Milwaukee club that went 41-14-5-3 (90 points) and won the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy as AHL regular-season champions. The Admirals had the AHL's best defense, allowing just 2.24 goals per game, and the team's offense ranked seventh in scoring (3.35), equating to a +1.11 goals-per-game differential, the third highest in the League's last decade. A testament to Nichol's proven track record of developing NHL talent, eight players who skated for Milwaukee in 2019-20 also competed in an NHL game for the Predators.

Nichol hung up the skates and rejoined the Predators organization in May 2013 after completing a 20-season professional career that spanned from 1994-95 to 2012-13. The Edmonton, Alta., native played four seasons with the Preds from 2005-09, posting 47 points (24g-23a) in 209 games. A veteran of 662 career NHL contests, Nichol tallied 127 points (56g-71a) and 916 penalty minutes with Buffalo, Calgary, Chicago, Nashville, San Jose and St. Louis and scored a career-best 10 goals in 2007-08 with the Preds. Nichol also compiled 211 points (90g-121a) and 1,029 penalty minutes in 398 games at the American and International Hockey League level with Rochester, Detroit and Milwaukee. He helped the San Jose Sharks advance to back-to-back Western Conference Finals in 2010 and 2011 and won the AHL's Calder Cup as a member of the Rochester Americans in 1996.

Perennially one of the NHL's top face-off men, Nichol, led the League in face-off efficiency in 2007-08 with Nashville and during the 2009-10 season with San Jose. He also holds a Nashville franchise record for shorthanded goals in a game and period with two in the second period of a 5-2 victory at St. Louis on Jan. 19, 2008.

Nichol and his wife, Christie, reside in Nashville and have three kids – sons Hayden and Foster and daughter Sophia. Hayden and Foster play hockey for the Nashville Jr. Preds; Sophia plays lacrosse for Woodland Lax and No Excuse Lax.

SEBASTIEN BORDELEAU
FORWARD DEVELOPMENT COACH

Sebastien Bordeleau enters his second season with the Nashville Predators organization as the Forward Development Coach in 2020-21. In his role, he assists Director of Player Development/Milwaukee Admirals GM Scott Nichol in following and evaluating forward prospects drafted and signed by Nashville, helping them with their maturation process into NHL players by focusing on nutrition, off-ice workouts and conditioning, practice habits and game performance.

Bordeleau returns to the Predators organization after spending three seasons with the team as a forward from 1998-01. He tallied 68 points (28g-40a) in 146 games with Nashville, including 40 (16g-24a) during the franchise's inaugural campaign in 1998-99. A seven-year NHL veteran, the Vancouver, B.C., native posted 98 points (37g-61a) in 251 games with Nashville, Montreal, Minnesota and Phoenix from 1996-02. He played the final 10 seasons (156g-227a) of his professional career in Switzerland, competing for Bern and Biel-Bienne, winning the league championship in 2004 with Bern.

He served as a skills coach for the Montreal Canadiens' AHL team from 2013-18 and since 2014 has also served as a skills and skating coach for the Canadian Women's National Hockey Team.

Bordeleau and his wife, Chantal, reside in Terrebonne, Que., and have two kids – son Thomas, a freshman on the University of Michigan hockey team, and daughter, Jade, who is in 10th grade and plays soccer.

DAVE ROOK
GOALTENDING DEVELOPMENT COACH

Dave Rook enters his seventh season with the Nashville Predators organization and second as Goaltending Development Coach in 2020-21. In his role, he assists Director of Player Development/Milwaukee Admirals GM Scott Nichol in following and evaluating goaltending prospects drafted and signed by Nashville, helping them with their maturation process into NHL players by focusing on nutrition, off-ice workouts and conditioning, practice habits and game performance.

Rook spent his first five seasons with the Predators serving as a goaltending consultant. A coach in junior and professional hockey for more than 20 years, Rook has extensive experience helping goaltenders be successful at the NHL and AHL levels, including goalies Juuse Saros and Connor Ingram. Under Rook's guidance, Saros has developed into a full-time NHL goaltender for Nashville and was named to the 2017-18 All-Rookie Team. He also worked closely with Ingram and Troy Grosenick during Milwaukee's 2019-20 AHL campaign, helping the duo earn the Harry "Hap" Holmes Award, which is presented to goaltenders (appearing in a minimum of 25 games) on the team with the lowest goals-against average at the end of the season.

In addition to his work with the Predators, he spent nine seasons as the goaltending coach for the OHL's London Knights, winning the Memorial Cup and OHL championship in 2005. Rook also has two additional years of NHL experience, working with the Columbus Blue Jackets as their goaltending coach from 2009-11, and coached professionally for one season in both Switzerland and Italy.

Rook and his wife, Krista, reside in London, Ont., and have two sons – Cameron and Tyler.

HOCKEY OPERATIONS

ROB SCUDERI
DEFENSE DEVELOPMENT COACH

Rob Scuderi enters his second season with the Nashville Predators organization as the Defense Development Coach in 2020-21. In his role, he assists Director of Player Development/Milwaukee Admirals GM Scott Nichol in following and evaluating defensive prospects drafted and signed by Nashville, helping them with their maturation process into NHL players by focusing on nutrition, off-ice workouts and conditioning, practice habits and game performance.

In 2019-20, Scuderi spent the final 32 games (28 regular season, four postseason) of Nashville's season as an Interim Assistant Coach under Head Coach John Hynes, who was hired on Jan. 7, 2020. With Scuderi on the bench helping coach the defensemen, the Predators went 16-11-1 en route to earning a spot in the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers. Scuderi returned to his role as Defense Development Coach following the conclusion of the 2019-20 season.

Scuderi retired in 2016 after spending 12 years in the NHL with the Pittsburgh Penguins, Los Angeles Kings and Chicago Blackhawks. He is a two-time Stanley Cup champion, claiming hockey's ultimate prize with Pittsburgh in 2009 and Los Angeles in 2012, and in his 738 career NHL games picked up 110 points (8g-102a) and 198 penalty minutes. The defenseman served as an alternate captain on Pittsburgh's Cup-winning squad and captained the AHL's Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins during the 2004-05 season.

Scuderi, a Syosset, N.Y., native, played college hockey at Boston College from 1997-01, winning the NCAA title in 2001 and the Hockey East championship three times. During the 2018-19 season, he served as a development coach for the P.A.L. Junior Islanders, a junior hockey team located in Hauppauge, N.Y.

Scuderi and his wife, Courtney, reside in Garden City, N.Y., and have four kids – sons Ryan and Brett and daughters Kate and Claire.

TOM NOLAN
CHIEF AMATEUR SCOUT

Tom Nolan enters his third season as the Predators' Chief Amateur Scout in 2020-21. Nolan, who formerly served as one of the team's North American scouts for 10 seasons beginning in 2008, was promoted to Chief Amateur Scout on June 21, 2018. In his role, Nolan helps Assistant General Manager/Director of Scouting Jeff Kealty oversee the organization's amateur scouting efforts all over the globe.

During his 12-year tenure with the organization, Nolan has had a hand in scouting many players who currently feature on the Predators roster. Nolan scouted Associate Captain Ryan Ellis, who has recorded 252 points (70g-182a) in 527 career NHL games with the Predators, as well as 2017-18 NHL All-Rookie Team goaltender Juuse Saros. Standouts Viktor Arvidsson and Colton Sissons were both drafted to the Predators under Nolan's watch, and the Springfield, Mass., native also scouted 2017 first-rounder Eeli Tolvanen.

Nolan played two seasons of professional hockey in the East Coast Hockey League and International Hockey League from 1998-00. He recorded 48 goals and 96 points with the ECHL's Mobile Mysticks from 1998-00 and had stints with the IHL's Grand Rapids and Houston, in addition to one game with the American Hockey League's Springfield Falcons. Prior to turning pro, Nolan was a standout at the University of New Hampshire, compiling 164 points (66g-98a) in 135 games for the Catamounts from 1993-98.

Nolan and his wife, Shannon, reside in Hampton, N.H., and have two kids – son Ryan and daughter Reese.

COACHING STAFF

JOHN HYNES
HEAD COACH

John Hynes enters his first full season, and second overall, as head coach of the Nashville Predators in 2020-21 after gaining the job midway through the 2019-20 campaign. Known as an exceptional leader and teacher who has a proven track record of effectively developing young players and motivating veterans, he was named the third head coach in Predators history on Jan. 7, 2020.

Last season, Hynes took over as head coach in January and led the Predators to a 16-11-1 regular-season record in the team's final 28 games, helping Nashville finish sixth in the Western Conference in point percentage (.565) and clinch a berth in the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers. Under Hynes' leadership, Nashville finished the pandemic-shortened season with a 35-26-8 record and 78 points in 69 games, guiding the franchise to the postseason for the sixth consecutive campaign, the longest streak in team history and tied for the second-longest active streak in the NHL.

Hynes, who made his Predators coaching debut the same day he was hired against Boston at Bridgestone Arena, installed multiple system changes – including a switch to zone coverage in the defensive end – that paid dividends for the Predators, who allowed 2.86 goals-against per game under Hynes compared to their 3.27 mark in the first half of the season. In their 28 regular-season contests with Hynes, the Predators also improved statistically on the power play and penalty kill and saw multiple players prosper offensively, including 2020 Norris Trophy winner Roman Josi (2g-19a), Filip Forsberg (7g-13a) and Matt Duchene (4g-10a).

He earned his first victory as Predators coach on Jan. 9, 2020 at Chicago – notably the same game goaltender Pekka Rinne scored his first career NHL goal – and achieved considerable success against Nashville's Central Division opponents, going 7-2-1 head-to-head with the team's closest rivals. Hynes reached the postseason for the second time as an NHL head coach and won his first postseason game with the Predators in Game 2 of their Qualifying Round series against the Arizona Coyotes.

The 45-year-old has compiled a 166-170-46 record as an NHL head coach in five seasons spent with Nashville and the New Jersey Devils. He was named head coach of the Devils prior to the 2014-15 campaign and led them to a six-point improvement in his first season, finishing with 84 points compared to 78 the season before. Following a 2016-17 season that saw his team finish 28-40-14 (70 points), Hynes engineered a 27-point improvement in 2017-18, the largest in New Jersey history, and led the Devils to the playoffs for the first time since 2011-12.

During the 2017-18 campaign, Hynes' Devils finished with a 44-29-9 record (97 points) and featured Hart Trophy winner Taylor Hall, who tallied a career-high 93 points (39g-54a) in 76 games. He also oversaw the development of 2017's No. 1 overall pick Nico Hischier, helping him record a career-best 52 points (20g-32a) – tied for the sixth-most among NHL rookies – in his first NHL season. For his efforts, Hynes earned the sixth-most votes for the Jack Adams Award as the NHL's top coach.

Multiple players across the League elevated their play under Hynes' watch in his tenure with the Devils. In addition to helping Hall to an MVP award and Hischier to a spot as one of the NHL's top young players, Hynes also assisted in the development of forward Kyle Palmieri, who established career highs in goals (30) and points (57) during his first season in New Jersey in 2015-16. Prior to his trade to Anaheim, forward Adam Henrique reached the 50-point mark under Hynes in 2015-16 and followed it up with a 20-goal, 40-point season the year after. Additionally, defenseman Adam Larsson posted a career-high 24 points (3g-21a) in 2014-15, Hynes' first season with the Devils; defenseman Sami Vatanen tallied 28 of his 32 points in 2017-18 under Hynes following a trade from Anaheim; and he helped develop current NHL regulars such as Damon Severson, Miles Wood, Will Butcher and Jesper Bratt.

Before joining the Devils organization, Hynes served as head coach of the AHL's Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins for five seasons from 2010-15 and was an assistant coach with the club in 2009-10. Hynes led the Penguins to five consecutive Calder Cup Playoff berths, including back-to-back trips to the Eastern Conference Final in 2012-13 and 2013-14, and earned AHL Coach of the Year honors in 2011. Wilkes-Barre/Scranton allowed the fewest goals in the AHL in four of his five seasons at the helm and Hynes helped develop several players who are making an impact in the NHL today, such as Pittsburgh's Bryan Rust and Kasperi Kapanen.

In between assistant coaching positions at UMass-Lowell (2000-01) and the University of Wisconsin (2002-03), Hynes spent nine seasons on the coaching staff of USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, serving as an assistant from 1998-2000 and 2001-02 and as head coach from 2003-09. While with the NTDP, Hynes developed players like Patrick Kane, Jimmy Howard, Phil Kessel, Jimmy Hayes and Jason Zucker while also excelling on the world's stage, claiming four Under-18 World Championship medals – two of them gold (2002 and 2006). The native of Warwick, R.I., served as an assistant coach for the United States at the 2004 World Junior Championship, where the Americans won gold for the first time and earned their first medal in the event since 1997.

Hynes began his coaching career at his alma mater of Boston University as an assistant under longtime Terriers head coach Jack Parker in 1997-98. A forward on the Terriers hockey team from 1993-97, he helped lead BU to four consecutive Frozen Four appearances, including an NCAA title in 1995. He was teammates with Predators Assistant General Manager/Director of Scouting Jeff Kealty for three seasons while at Boston University.

Hynes and his wife, Sarah, reside in Brentwood and have three daughters – Sophia, Julia and Anna.

DAN LAMBERT
ASSISTANT COACH

Dan Lambert enters his second season with the Nashville Predators organization as an assistant coach in 2020-21. Lambert's responsibilities include running the team's power play and consulting on its forward group.

In Lambert's first season on the Predators bench in 2019-20, the team's power play improved by nearly five percent, and its success continued into the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers as Nashville operated at a 28.6 percent clip (4-for-14), tied for the second-highest mark among the 24 teams who qualified. On the road, Nashville finished with the League's 12th-best power play, converting on 20.2 percent of its opportunities. Lambert's impact was also felt in the offensive zone, as the Preds netted 3.07 goals per game compared to its 2018-19 average of 2.88.

Prior to joining the Predators, Lambert spent two seasons as head coach of the Western Hockey League's Spokane Chiefs. In 2018-19, he led the Chiefs to a 40-21-2-5 record en route to the WHL's Western Conference Final, the team's longest playoff run since 2011. Lambert amassed an 81-46-5-8 record during his two seasons in Spokane and his teams ranked among the best offensively in the WHL, finishing third in 2018-19 and sixth in 2017-18 in goals scored. Under Lambert's guidance, Spokane's power play led the WHL in 2018-19, operating at 29.1 percent (81-for-278), the second-highest across the entire CHL.

Lambert brings previous NHL coaching experience to the Predators bench, having served one season as an assistant coach for the Buffalo Sabres in 2015-16. Following his time in Buffalo, he spent the 2016-17 campaign as head coach of the AHL's Rochester Americans, where he helped nine players establish AHL career highs in points. Before his stops in Buffalo and Rochester, Lambert spent six seasons with the WHL's Kelowna Rockets, serving five as an assistant (2009-14) and one as head coach (2014-15). During his lone season at the helm of the Rockets, he led the team to the Ed Chynoweth Cup as WHL champions and a spot in the Memorial Cup, where they fell in the championship game to the OHL's Oshawa Generals. He coached Preds forward Colton Sissons in Kelowna from 2010-13, helping him set career highs in goals in each of his three seasons. While head coach of the Rockets, he also aided the development of 2020 Hart Trophy and Art Ross winner Leon Draisaitl of the Edmonton Oilers, who tallied 53 points (19g-34a) in 32 games during his final junior season.

Internationally, the Saint Boniface, Man., native coached Preds defenseman Dante Fabbro and Team Canada Red to a silver medal at the 2014 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge.

As a player, the 5-foot-9 defenseman enjoyed a professional career that spanned 19 seasons from 1990-2009. Selected in the sixth round (106th overall) by the Quebec Nordiques in the 1989 NHL Draft, Lambert appeared in 29 NHL contests, tallying six goals and 15 points. He had stints in the AHL, IHL and Finland before closing out his playing career in Germany, spending 10 seasons in the country's first division with four different squads. He won the Spengler Cup with Cologne in 1999 and the German league championship with Krefeld in 2003.

Before making his NHL debut in 1990 with Quebec, Lambert played four seasons for the WHL's Swift Current Broncos, captaining the team in his final two campaigns and leading them to the 1989 Memorial Cup. He tallied 102 points (25g-77a) in 57 games with Swift Current in 1988-89, and in addition to being named Memorial Cup MVP, was selected as the WHL's top defenseman. He left the Broncos as the franchise's all-time leader in assists with 244.

Lambert and his wife, Melanie, have three daughters – Melissa, Julia and Brooke.

DAN HINOTE
ASSISTANT COACH

Dan Hinote enters his first season with the Nashville Predators organization as an assistant coach in 2020-21. A Stanley Cup champion as a player with the Colorado Avalanche in 2001, Hinote is known to form strong relationships with his players and has many connections to current and former Predators players and staff members. He coached forward Ryan Johansen while with the Columbus Blue Jackets, was teammates with former Preds forwards and Hockey Hall of Famers Paul Kariya and Peter Forsberg in Colorado, and played alongside current Nashville Director of Player Development Scott Nichol and TV Analyst Chris Mason with the St. Louis Blues.

Prior to joining the Predators, Hinote spent the previous two seasons as an associate coach for USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, most recently working with the Under-17 squad during the 2019-20 campaign. The Under-17 team captured three medals in international play in 2019-20, winning gold at the Four Nations tournament in December and earning silver at both the World Under-17 Hockey Challenge and the Five Nations tournament.

Hinote worked with the Under-18 team during his first season with the NTDP in 2018-19, winning gold at the 2019 Under-18 Five Nations tournament and earning a bronze medal at the 2019 Under-18 World Championship. He also aided the development of the 17 players selected directly from the NTDP in the 2019 NHL Draft – eight of which came in the first round – including first-overall pick Jack Hughes, Alex Turcotte (fifth overall) and Trevor Zegras (ninth overall).

He brings previous NHL coaching experience to the Predators bench, having spent eight seasons with the Blue Jackets organization – the first four as an assistant coach (2010-14) and the final four as a pro scout (2014-18). In his final season in Columbus, he helped the Blue Jackets post a 38-point improvement from the previous season and reach the playoffs for the first time since 2008-09 on the strength of a 43-32-7 record (93 points).

Known as a tenacious competitor and strong penalty killer, the Leesburg, Fla., native played nine NHL seasons with the Avalanche and Blues from 1999-2009, tallying 90 points (38g-52a) and 383 penalty minutes in 503 career games. During Colorado's Stanley Cup-winning campaign in 2000-01, the 6-foot, 187-pound right wing posted a career-high 15 points and 10 assists during the regular season and chipped in with six points (2g-4a) in 23 postseason contests. Selected by the Avalanche in the seventh round (167th overall) of the 1996 NHL Draft, Hinote competed in 72 career Stanley Cup Playoff games, recording 15 points (6g-9a).

Hinote also suited up for MODO of the Swedish Hockey League in both 2004-05 and 2009-10 and played parts of three seasons with the AHL's Hershey Bears from 1998-00. Before turning pro, he skated two seasons with the OHL's Oshawa Generals and attended Army West Point (U.S. Military Academy), where he became the first player in program history to be drafted to the NHL.

TODD RICHARDS
ASSISTANT COACH

Todd Richards enters his first season with the Nashville Predators as an assistant coach in 2020-21. A veteran of 12 NHL seasons behind the bench and a 2020 Stanley Cup champion as an assistant with the Tampa Bay Lightning, Richards is known for his work ethic, teaching ability and communication skills.

During his four-season tenure with the Lightning, he helped lead Tampa Bay to a league-best 201 victories in that span, the 2018-19 Presidents' Trophy and two Atlantic Division titles in addition to the Cup. Prior to joining the Lightning, Richards spent five seasons as head coach of the Columbus Blue Jackets and went 127-112-21 for a .529 point percentage, the second-highest in team history among those with at least one full season behind the bench. Richards led the Blue Jackets to back-to-back 40-win seasons in 2013-14 and 2014-15 and became the first head coach in Columbus history to record three consecutive winning campaigns.

His NHL head coaching career began with the Minnesota Wild, where he went 77-71-16 and led the club to two straight winning seasons from 2009-11. Richards earned his first opportunity to coach in the NHL in 2008-09 as an assistant for San Jose and helped the Sharks win the Presidents' Trophy with a 53-18-11 record.

Richards has previous ties to the Predators organization. He received his professional coaching start with the AHL's Milwaukee Admirals – Nashville's primary affiliate – as an assistant from 2002-06, winning the 2004 Calder Cup and helping guide Milwaukee to a winning record in all four seasons, including two Western Conference titles. He aided in the development of current Predators goaltender Pekka Rinne and many other longtime stalwarts of Nashville's NHL roster, such as Shea Weber, Dan Hamhuis, Jordin Tootoo, Martin Erat and Scottie Upshall. Following the 2005-06 season, Richards moved on to become the head coach of the AHL's Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins, where he posted a 98-49-5-8 record and took his team to the 2008 Calder Cup Final.

The Robbinsdale, Minn., native has represented the United States as a coach on the international level four times, most recently as an assistant coach for the Americans' 2016 World Championship entry. He also earned a bronze medal as head coach of the U.S. in the 2015 World Championship, served as an assistant coach at the 2014 Winter Olympics and as an assistant at the Worlds in 2010.

As a player, the right-shot defenseman enjoyed a 13-season professional career that featured eight NHL appearances with the Hartford Whalers in the 1990-91 and 1991-92 campaigns. Originally drafted by the Montreal Canadiens in the second round (33rd overall) of the 1985 NHL Draft, Richards suited up for more than 850 professional games, the bulk of which came in the International Hockey League with Las Vegas and Orlando. He began his pro career in 1989-90 with Montreal's AHL affiliate in Sherbrooke and closed it out during the 2001-02 season with Geneva of the Swiss league. Before turning pro, Richards played four seasons at the University of Minnesota, captaining the Golden Gophers as a senior in 1988-89 and leaving as the school's all-time leader in points by a blueliner with 158 (30g-128a).

LAWRENCE FELONEY
ASSISTANT COACH - VIDEO

Lawrence Feloney enters his 11th season with the Nashville Predators organization and third as Assistant Coach – Video in 2020-21 after spending five seasons as video coach. He previously served as video coordinator from 2010-13. He is responsible for video analysis of all pre-scout and Predators game film and manages the organization's video systems.

In 2014, Feloney received the opportunity to represent his country for the first time, serving as video coach for the U.S. Men's National Team at the IIHF World Championship in Minsk, Belarus. During the tournament, Feloney handled all aspects of the team's video preparation, scouting and film review.

Prior to joining the Predators, Feloney spent four seasons as the video coordinator for the New Jersey Devils top developmental affiliate, the American Hockey League's Lowell Devils from 2006-10.

The Natick, Mass., native started his work in video while serving as team manager and video coordinator for the University of Massachusetts Amherst men's hockey team from 2003-05. Feloney graduated from UMass Amherst with a bachelor's degree in sports management in 2005.

BEN VANDERKLOK
GOALTENDING COACH

Ben Vanderklok enters his seventh season as the Nashville Predators goaltending coach in 2020-21. In his position, Vanderklok works with all the goaltenders in the Nashville system, including those playing in Milwaukee (AHL), amateur leagues and Europe.

During Vanderklok's six seasons with the Predators, he has helped the team's goaltenders reach new heights. Since the 2014-15 campaign, Nashville goaltenders have recorded the second-most shutouts in the NHL (40), tied for the second-best save percentage (.916) and the fourth-best goals-against average (2.49). Pekka Rinne has flourished under Vanderklok's watch, winning his first career Vezina Trophy in 2018 as the NHL's top goaltender and has been named to the NHL All-Star Game four times (2015, 2016, 2018 and 2019).

During the 2019-20 season, his sixth working alongside Vanderklok, Rinne continued to entrench himself in the League's record books by moving into 20th on the NHL's all-time wins list (359) and tied for 20th in shutouts (58). Rinne's teammate, Juuse Saros, also enjoyed success during the 2019-20 campaign, with Vanderklok helping lead the 25-year-old goaltender to career highs in games (40), starts (34) and shutouts (4) while also winning 17 games, matching his career-best mark. Additionally, Saros was one of the NHL's best goalies from Jan. 12 to the end of the regular season, posting a .935 save percentage – tied for the League's third-best – in 19 games. That stretch also included back-to-back shutouts against the Dallas Stars and a shutout streak of 181:07, the second-longest in Predators history.

Vanderklok has been alongside Rinne for several milestones in the Kempele, Finland, native's historic career. In 2018-19, Rinne again hit the 30-win mark, becoming one of eight goaltenders in NHL history to do so in at least eight different seasons. Earlier in the season, he won his 320th career game, passing Miikka Kiprusoff to become the winningest Finnish-born goaltender in NHL history; Rinne has now also played in more games (659) and recorded more shutouts (58) than any other goalie from his native Finland in League history. He became the first player in Predators history to win an individual, performance-based NHL Award in 2018 by claiming the Vezina Trophy after finishing first in save percentage (.927), even-strength save percentage (.938) and goals-against average (2.31) and third in wins (42) among goalies who played in at least 50 games. Vanderklok also helped Saros be named to the NHL's All-Rookie Team in 2017-18 after he recorded a .925 save percentage – the third-highest in a single-season in team history – and an 11-5-7 record as a 23-year-old. During the 2016-17 season, Rinne was the NHL's First Star of the Month in November, making him the first Predators player in team history to accomplish the feat.

Later that season, Rinne backstopped Nashville to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time in franchise history, reaching Game 6 against the Pittsburgh Penguins. In 2014-15, his first season working full-time with Vanderklok, Rinne tied for second among all NHL goaltenders in wins (41), was third in goals-against average (2.18) and tied for seventh in save percentage (.923), which earned Rinne one of his four career Vezina nominations (2011, 2012, 2015, 2018). As a result of being a part of the coaching staff of the team with the best point percentage at the midpoint of the 2014-15 season, Vanderklok also represented the Predators at the 2015 All-Star Game.

Prior to his current role, Vanderklok served as the organization's assistant goaltending coach for five seasons from 2009-14, where he worked with nearly all the goalies within the organization. His work has been integral in Saros' transition to North America. In 2015-16, Saros was named to the 2016 AHL All-Rookie Team after ranking fourth among all league netminders in goals-against average (2.24), tying for fourth in wins (29), tying for sixth in shutouts (4) and tying for eighth in save percentage (.920). Additionally in 2013-14, Scott Darling came to the organization with one AHL game to his credit, and ended the season ranked among the league leaders in save percentage (.933), goals-against average (2.00) and shutouts (6) for the Admirals, earning him a full-time NHL position with the Chicago Blackhawks.

The Welland, Ont., native worked as goalie coach for the Ontario Hockey League's Niagara IceDogs from 2008-14, helping them reach the playoffs in six consecutive seasons and a trip to the 2012 OHL Final. During his first four seasons with the IceDogs, Vanderklok helped Mark Visentin become a first-round pick of the Arizona Coyotes (27th overall), earn a pair of medals with Team Canada at the World Junior Championship, be named the 2011 OHL Goaltender of the Year and earn the 2012 Dave Pinkney Trophy as the goalie with the lowest goals-against average.

Vanderklok started his coaching career with the Port Colborne Pirates of the Golden Horseshoe Junior Hockey League (Junior B) from 2003-06 before instructing and training Brock University's (Ontario) goalies from 2007-09. Since 2003, he has run Ben Vanderklok Goaltending, which conducts camps and clinics in St. Catharines, Ont. A dual Canadian-Dutch citizen, Vanderklok retired from play following four seasons (2000-04) and two league titles in 2002 and 2003 with the Amsterdam Tigers of the Netherlands Elite League. He played a pair of seasons with the OHL's Barrie Colts from 1998-2000.

Vanderklok and his wife, Marlene, reside in Brentwood and have one daughter, Ava.

DAVID GOOD
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

David Good enters his 17th season as the strength and conditioning coach of the Nashville Predators in 2020-21. He joined the Predators in July 2004 and is responsible for preparing and supervising workout programs for all players in the Predators organization. Good also helps run the club's prospect development program and the off-ice aspects of the Predators Hockey School.

Good was instrumental in developing a program for Steve Sullivan that allowed the Predators forward to return to the ice on Jan. 12, 2009 after almost a two-year absence that included missing 142 straight regular-season games and 11 playoff games due to a back injury. In June 2009, Sullivan won the NHL's Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy given "to the player that best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey." During the summer of 2010, he designed and outfitted the new weight room at Bridgestone Arena with triple the amount of space to facilitate optimal in-season training.

Prior to joining the Predators, Good served as the Director of Speed-Strength and Conditioning for West Coast Sports Performance and Center for Athlete Medicine in Manhattan Beach, Calif., and as a consultant for the ECHL's Long Beach Ice Dogs. The Colorado native served as the Assistant Speed-Strength and Conditioning Coach for the Los Angeles Kings from 1999-03 and held the same title from 1997-99 with the Ice Dogs, then of the IHL. He also served as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles from 1998-99.

Before moving to California, Good served as the Student Assistant Strength and Conditioning coach at the University of Colorado for two years. He received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from the University of Colorado Boulder along with certifications in strength and conditioning, sports conditioning, Olympic weightlifting and kettlebell training. Good has recently been recognized by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) with the distinction of Registered Strength and Conditioning Coach Emeritus (RSCC*E) for demonstrating expertise and dedication in the field of strength and conditioning for more than 20 years.

Good and his wife, Amanda, reside in Thompson's Station and have one daughter, Maggie.

TRAINING STAFF

ANDY HOSLER
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Andy Hosler enters his eighth season as the Head Athletic Trainer and 14th with the Nashville Predators organization in 2020-21. Hosler has been a certified athletic trainer for the last 16 years, 14 of which have been spent in professional hockey.

In his role as Head Athletic Trainer, Hosler manages the health and rehab of players throughout the Nashville organization. He served as Nashville's assistant athletic trainer for six seasons from 2007-13 before assuming the head role in the 2013-14 campaign.

Prior to joining the Predators, the Monroe, Mich., native spent two seasons as the Head Athletic Trainer for the ECHL's Utah Grizzlies. Hosler earned a master's degree in kinesiology at Michigan State University while serving as a graduate assistant, working with the Spartan wrestling and football teams during the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons. Hosler earned his bachelor's degree from Western Michigan University, working across the athletic department spectrum from gymnastics to football.

Hosler is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, licensed Athletic Trainer through the state of Tennessee and certified Level 1 Sports Performance Coach through USA Weightlifting. He also holds a membership through the Professional Hockey Athletic Trainer's Society.

Hosler and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Franklin and have two sons, Henry and Fritz.

PETE ROGERS
HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Pete Rogers enters his 23rd season as Head Equipment Manager of the Nashville Predators in 2020-21. He is responsible for the everyday equipment needs of all the players as well as coordinating the transfer of equipment to and from road games. Rogers also works with the NHL to ensure compliance with programs concerning equipment tracking, equipment safety, jersey authentication and on-ice exposure.

Rogers served as the equipment manager for the U.S. Men's National Team in his second Olympic Games at the 2014 Winter Olympics in Sochi after having first done so in Torino in 2006. He has also represented his country at six IIHF World Championships (1999-2002, 2005, 2013), most recently in Stockholm, Sweden and Helsinki, Finland in 2013 where Team USA earned a bronze medal. He's also served as the United States' equipment manager at the 2004 World Cup of Hockey and the 2004 Deutschland Cup in Germany.

Rogers continues to serve on the executive board of the Society of Professional Hockey Equipment Managers (SPHEM) after a six-year stint as president from 2012-18. Rogers worked his 2,000th professional game as an equipment manager in Nashville's 2014-15 regular-season finale on April 11, 2015 at Dallas. The "Original Predator" has been behind the bench for all 1,675 regular-season and 115 playoff games the team has played, including his 1,000th game with the Predators on November 12, 2011. Rogers was the Head Equipment Manager for the Eastern Conference All-Stars at the 2007 NHL All-Star Game in Dallas and handled all equipment logistics as the head equipment manager for the 2016 NHL All-Star Game in Nashville.

Prior to joining the Nashville organization in July 1998, the College at Brockport, SUNY graduate spent eight seasons as the equipment manager and director of team travel for the AHL's Rochester Americans. Rogers also spent nine seasons as an assistant equipment manager in Rochester before a one-year stint as head trainer with the ECHL's Hampton Roads Admirals in 1989-90.

Rogers and his wife, Judy, resident in Brentwood and have one daughter, Alexandra, and two dogs, Toby and Spencer.

WILLY DAUNIC
TV PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Willy Daunic enters his sixth season as the Predators television play-by-play broadcaster for game broadcasts on FOX Sports Tennessee, after spending two seasons in the radio play-by-play role from 2013-15. Prior to moving upstairs to play-by-play, Daunic was the radio host of the team's pregame, intermission and postgame coverage for 13 seasons, beginning in Nashville's inaugural 1998-99 season.

In addition to his work with the Predators, Daunic has been hosting sports talk radio shows in Nashville since 1993 and joined the Predators' flagship station 102.5 The Game when it became an all-sports station in 2011. He currently serves as a co-host of "Darren, Daunic & Chase" from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. on 102.5 The Game.

Daunic has performed a wide variety of play-by-play and color duties on both radio and television in Nashville, including Vanderbilt University (football, baseball and basketball), Belmont University basketball, Nashville Sounds, TSSAA (Tennessee High School) State Championship games (football, baseball and basketball) and more.

A 1993 graduate of Vanderbilt University, Daunic lettered in two sports for the Commodores. Attending on a basketball scholarship, he played on the Commodores' 1990 NIT Championship team, as well as a team that reached the 1991 NCAA Tournament during his three seasons. Daunic also played four years of baseball at VU and was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 25th round of the 1993 MLB Draft, spending two seasons in their minor league system.

Daunic and his wife, Erin, reside in Nashville and have two children – daughter Evans (18) and son Mahoney (15).

@cmace30

CHRIS MASON
TV COLOR ANALYST

Chris Mason enters his sixth season with the Nashville Predators broadcast team and fourth as the color analyst for FOX Sports Tennessee. Prior to his role in television, Mason worked as a color analyst for the Nashville Predators Radio Network in 2015-16.

Mason first joined the Predators on Oct. 5, 1998 when he was acquired via trade from the Anaheim Ducks. He went on to spend seven of the next eight seasons with the organization, splitting time between the Preds and the Milwaukee Admirals, the team's IHL/AHL affiliate. After four seasons spent with the St. Louis Blues, Atlanta Thrashers and Winnipeg Jets, Mason returned to Nashville as a free agent on July 1, 2012 and played 11 games for the team during the 2012-13 season. Throughout his career in Nashville, the Red Deer, Alta., native appeared in 135 games, recording 58 wins, a 2.61 goals-against average and a .913 save percentage. On April 15, 2006, he became the ninth goalie in NHL history to score a goal.

He returned to Music City following two seasons playing in Europe – one with the Italy's Ritten-Renon and one with the Germany's Augsburg Panthers. He is an active member of the city's youth hockey landscape and helped foster the merger between the Nashville Jr. Predators and TPH Thunder AAA club. He also currently serves as the President of the Nashville Predators Alumni Association.

Mason and his wife, Courtney, reside in Brentwood and have three children – daughters Avery and Quinn, and son Fraser.

@PeteWeberSports

PETE WEBER
RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Pete Weber, the "Voice of the Predators," begins his 23rd season as part of the Nashville Predators broadcast crew and his sixth working as the team's primary radio play-by-play announcer. In the last 22 seasons, Weber has missed just two games and has called 1,787 games for the team (1,673 regular season, 114 playoff).

His insights are called upon by local sports talk radio and television, and his writing is featured on the team's website. In January 2019, Weber won his seventh Tennessee Sportscaster of the Year award from the NSMA (National Sports Media Association), as voted by the National Association of Sportscasters and Sportswriters.

Weber has served the last 15 seasons as an insider on SiriusXM's NHL Network Radio and spent nearly nine years as co-host of Slapshot Radio on ESPN 102.5 The Game from 2009-17.

In addition to his roles with the team, Weber served as co-host of SportsNight from 2003 through 2005, filled in as a host on ESPN Radio, called two Music City Bowl games and helped out on Nashville Sounds baseball broadcasts. He also produced and hosted two podcasts: "This Week in the Minor (Baseball) Leagues" and the syndicated "Southern Pro Football."

Weber's hockey experience includes three seasons (1978-81) as an analyst on the Los Angeles Kings radio and telecasts, two seasons (1995-97) of radio play-by-play for the Buffalo Sabres and coverage of the U.S. hockey team at the 1984 Winter Olympics in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, along with duties as host for Buffalo's cable and radio coverage. At the college level, he called games for his alma mater, the University of Notre Dame, from 1974-76 and the University at Buffalo from 1976-78.

Outside of hockey, Weber spent 15 seasons in Triple AAA baseball with Albuquerque, Rochester and Buffalo, where he was inducted into the Buffalo Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999. He served one season as TV play-by-play for the NBA's Seattle SuperSonics and was part of the broadcast team for each of the Buffalo Bills' four Super Bowl appearances. On Sept. 28, 2017, he was inducted into the Buffalo Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame.

A four-time regional Emmy award winner (2003, 2008, 2010 and 2016), Weber is on the Board of Governors for the Mid-South's chapter for the National Academy of TV Arts and Sciences. In addition, he serves on the Tennessee Radio Hall of Fame's Board of Directors.

Weber is a native of Galesburg, Ill., and holds two degrees from Notre Dame. He and his wife, Claudia, reside in Nashville.

HAL GILL
RADIO COLOR ANALYST

Hal Gill enters his fourth season on the Nashville Predators broadcast team as the radio color analyst.

A veteran of 1,108 NHL games, Gill won the Stanley Cup in 2009 with the Pittsburgh Penguins. He spent two seasons with the Predators, tallying five points in 55 games after making his team debut on Feb. 12, 2012. He closed out his NHL career in Philadelphia in 2013-14 and also skated for the Montreal Canadiens (2009-12), Penguins (2007-09), Toronto Maple Leafs (2006-08) and Boston Bruins (1997-04) during his 16-year career. Originally drafted in the eighth round (207th overall) by the Bruins in the 1993 NHL Draft, the Concord, Mass., native made his NHL debut with his hometown team on Oct. 17, 1997. Internationally, Gill helped the U.S. earn a bronze medal at the 2004 World Championship, one of the five times he competed in the event. Before turning pro, he played four seasons at Providence College, captaining the Friars during his senior campaign in 1996-97.

Gill and his wife, Anne, have three children – daughters Isabelle and Sophie, and son Talon.

BRENT PETERSON
BROADCAST ANALYST

A member of the Nashville Predators organization since Day 1, Brent Peterson enters his seventh season as a member of the Preds' radio broadcast team.

After spending his first 13 seasons with the franchise as a member of the team's coaching staff, Peterson served as Hockey Operations Advisor from 2011-14, working closely with General Manager David Poile and the coaching staff in all matters involving the team, in addition to being active in the community and in sponsorship and business operations.

A tireless worker in the community, Peterson established the Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's (PFP) in 2007 to raise awareness of the devastating effects of Parkinson's disease. Since 2011, PFP has joined forces with the Predators to hold Petey's Preds Party – a fun night of live entertainment, dinner and an extensive silent auction – and the Nashville Predators/Brent Peterson Celebrity Golf Classic at Vanderbilt Legends Club. In its first 10 years of existence, the combination Party and Golf Classic have raised more than $600,000, which was split between Parkinson's research and the Predators Foundation. Donations to PFP fund critical research to aid in the fight against the disease as well as educational and support groups.

During the 2011-12 season, Peterson brought his battle with Parkinson's into the public eye – including in-depth coverage of his Deep Brain Stimulation Surgery (DBS) – in an effort to create awareness and cultivate donations to the Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's. Since the DBS, Peterson is happy, healthy and has seen a reduction of his Parkinson's symptoms.

In his time behind the Predators bench as both associate coach (2003-11) and assistant coach (1998-2003), Peterson worked closely with the penalty-killing unit that has finished among the top 12 in the NHL in 10-of-12 seasons, and a defensive corps that gave up the second-fewest goals in his final season behind the bench (2010-11). He helped the club to Stanley Cup Playoff berths in six of his last seven seasons behind the bench and coached players such as Dan Hamhuis, Ryan Suter and Shea Weber.

Peterson joined the Predators after serving as head coach of the Portland Winterhawks (WHL) for seven seasons, posting a 201-138-20 mark. During the 1997-98 season, the Winterhawks were a league-best 53-14-5 and captured the WHL Championship and the Memorial Cup. He recorded 40-or-more victories on four occasions and helped develop NHL first-round picks Adam Deadmarsh (1993), Jason Wiemer (1994), Brenden Morrow (1997) and Marian Hossa (1997).

Prior to joining Portland, the Calgary, Alta., native spent two seasons (1989-91) as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers (NHL) following his retirement as a player. The former first-round pick of Detroit (1978) played 11 NHL seasons from 1978-89 with Detroit, Buffalo, Vancouver and Hartford. He appeared in 620 NHL games, collecting 213 points (72g-141a) and 484 penalty minutes. Peterson was known as one of the NHL's top defensive forwards and penalty killers.

Peterson and his wife, Tami, reside in Franklin and have three children – sons Ryan and Brad, and daughter Kristin – and five grandchildren.

TERRY CRISP
STUDIO ANALYST

Entering his 23rd year with the Predators, Terry Crisp provides analysis on the Predators during the team's television broadcasts.

From the franchise's first season in 1998-99 until 2013-14, Crisp worked alongside Pete Weber, forming one of the most well-known broadcast duos in the League. A part of the Predators' Emmy-winning broadcasts in 2003, 2008 and 2010, Crisp served as a color analyst for FOX Sports during the 1998-99 season and the 1998 and 1999 Stanley Cup Finals. He has also contributed to TSN broadcasts in a similar role in past years, including as a studio analyst during the 2000, 2002 and 2003 IIHF World Championships.

Crisp posted 201 points (67g-134a) in 536 games during his 11 seasons in the NHL as a player for the Boston Bruins, St. Louis Blues, New York Islanders and Philadelphia Flyers. He won three Stanley Cup Championships – two as a player with the Flyers (1974 and 1975) and one as a coach with Calgary (1989) – making him one of only 14 people to have won the Cup as both player and head coach.

Crisp has a unique perspective on expansion teams: He was a player with the inaugural editions of the Blues in 1967 and the Islanders in 1972.

Crisp was the head coach of the Tampa Bay Lightning from the franchise's inception in 1992 through October 1997, coaching 391 games. He held the record for most games coached by an expansion franchise's first coach until Barry Trotz, then with the Nashville Predators, broke the mark in 2003. Crisp also served as the assistant coach of the silver medal-winning Canadian team at the 1992 Winter Olympic Games in Albertville, France.

In honor of his more than two decades of growing the game of hockey in Nashville and beyond, Crisp was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in August 2020. He also is a member of the Bobby Orr Hall of Fame, located in his hometown of Parry Sound, Ont.

Terry and his wife, Sheila, reside in Nashville. The Crisps have three children – sons Tony and Jeff, and daughter Caley, and 10 grandchildren.

LYNDSAY ROWLEY
PREDATORS LIVE HOST AND RINKSIDE REPORTER

Lyndsay Rowley enters her seventh season with the Nashville Predators and fourth season as the pregame and postgame co-host for Predators LIVE alongside Terry Crisp. Along with her home game duties, she also hosts Predators LIVE and reports rinkside from road contests. Rowley spent three seasons as the rinkside reporter for all Predators' home games and select away games on FOX Sports Tennessee. Rowley works with the rest of the Predators broadcast crew to bring fans closer to the action through interviews, special features and more. Additionally, Rowley discusses the Preds routinely throughout the season on NHL Network.

Prior to joining the Predators broadcast team, Rowley spent time with the Rockland Boulders, an independent professional baseball team in Pomona, N.Y., working as a field correspondent for all live television broadcasts. In addition to her work with the Boulders, Rowley spent time with the Charlotte Bobcats (now Hornets) as an in-house television host and has been on the sidelines of college football, baseball and volleyball games for various broadcasters.

In 2012, Rowley covered the Columbus Blue Jackets for Columbus' NBC affiliate while also covering Ohio State football, basketball and baseball games and the 2012 USA Swimming Grand Prix.

A native of New Albany, Ohio, Rowley received her bachelor's degree in communications at High Point University in High Point, N.C., where she was a four-year member of the Division I varsity volleyball team. Rowley earned her MBA while she was a graduate assistant volleyball coach at Ohio Dominican University in Columbus, Ohio.

Rowley enjoys sports, writing and traveling in her spare time.

KARA HAMMER
RINKSIDE REPORTER

Kara Hammer enters her fourth season with the Nashville Predators broadcast team as its rinkside reporter.

Before joining the broadcast team, Hammer was a sports reporter for WKRN-TV in Nashville for two years and covered the Predators' historic run to the 2017 Stanley Cup Final. Prior to joining News 2, she served as the Tennessee Titans sideline reporter on NFL Network during preseason games and appeared weekly on the Titans' Coaches Show.

Before moving to Nashville in 2015, Hammer spent three years with Fox Sports Arizona and NAU-TV working as a sideline reporter and color analyst. While there, she made history as part of the first all-female announcing team for a live event on FSAZ on Feb. 23, 2013. She began her career at KGWN in Cheyenne, Wyo., in 2010.

Born and raised in Aurora, Colo., Hammer graduated from the University of Wyoming with a degree in communications and journalism. Hammer and her husband, Dustin, reside in Nashville during the season and spend their summers in Colorado.

FOX SPORTS TENNESSEE

FOX Sports Tennessee is entering its 23rd season as the exclusive regional broadcaster of the Nashville Predators. The network's telecasts will be available through cable, satellite and over-the-top (OTT) providers across Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Willy Daunic is returning as the play-by-play announcer, his sixth season calling Predators action on FOX Sports Tennessee. Daunic is joined by former Predators goaltender Chris Mason, who will work his fourth full season as a color analyst. Kara Hammer returns for her fourth season as rinkside reporter. Lyndsay Rowley will return for her seventh season with the team, serving as host of Predators LIVE with broadcast veteran Terry Crisp, who continues as an analyst after spending the last 22 seasons with the Predators.

Predators LIVE, the network's pregame and postgame show, will return with expert insight and analysis before and after each game. The show will originate from the FOX Sports Tennessee Zone at Bridgestone Arena for all home games. All Predators games televised on FOX Sports Tennessee will also be streamed on FOX Sports GO, currently available on mobile and tablet devices, including iOS and Android, as well as FOXSportsGo.com.

Predators fans can find exclusive Predators content from FOX Sports Tennessee on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

FOX Sports South, FOX Sports Carolinas, FOX Sports Tennessee and FOX Sports Southeast are Sinclair-owned Regional Sports Networks. They form the largest RSN in the United States, delivering coverage to more states than any other RSN, including Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee. As rightsholders for the Atlanta Braves, Atlanta Dream, Atlanta Hawks, Atlanta United, Carolina Hurricanes, Charlotte Hornets, Memphis Grizzlies, Nashville Predators and Atlantic Coast Conference, the networks produce 750+ live events while televising 2600+ live events and studio shows annually.

ESPN 102.5 THE GAME

This season, the Predators and their ancillary programming continue to serve as the centerpiece of 102.5 The Game's all-sports format.

Pete Weber, the "Voice of the Predators," enters his 23rd season behind the Predators play-by-play microphone. Joining Weber in the booth for his fourth season is former Preds defenseman Hal Gill as color analyst. Darren McFarland returns as the pregame and postgame host for the radio network, and former Preds Associate Coach Brent Peterson continues as a contributing analyst.

WPRT-FM, ESPN 102.5 The Game is Nashville's Best Sports Talk and sister station to ESPN 94.9; heritage rock station, 102.9 The Buzz; 93.3 Classic Hits; and 102.1 The VILLE, the Soul of Music City. All stations are locally owned and operated as a part of the Nashville based Cromwell Group, Inc., which owns 32 stations total in Tennessee, Kentucky and Illinois. 102.5 The Game will carry all preseason, regular season and postseason Predators games. These games will include an hour-long pregame and postgame show.

BRIDGESTONE ARENA INFORMATION

BRIDGESTONE ARENA

501 BROADWAY • NASHVILLE, TN 37203 • 615-770-2000 • BRIDGESTONEARENA.COM

Serving as the home for numerous national and international events, Bridgestone Arena has the distinction of being one of the busiest venues in the United States since its doors first opened in 1996, hosting more than 20 million guests during that time. Since 1998, Bridgestone Arena has been the home of the National Hockey League's Nashville Predators, whose passionate fans create the most unique and electrifying game atmosphere in professional sports. Seating capacity is approximately 20,000 for concerts, 19,395 for basketball and 17,159 for Nashville Predators games.

Formerly known as the Nashville Arena, Gaylord Entertainment Center and Sommet Center, the building became Bridgestone Arena in 2010 after Bridgestone Americas, Inc., which is headquartered a mere two blocks from the venue, entered into multi-year naming-rights and marketing partnership with the Predators and Powers Management.

The latest chapter in Bridgestone Arena's history was written on June 20, 2019, when the Metro Nashville Sports Authority unanimously approved a landmark 30-year lease agreement between the City of Nashville, Powers Management and the Nashville Predators that will keep the team at its current venue through 2049. As part of the new lease, the Metro Nashville and Davidson County General Fund is relieved from all obligations of supporting Bridgestone Arena and the Predators and all existing in-arena revenue streams will be used to maintain, improve and expand the building while eliminating Metro's guarantees. Just a few months later in September, the Predators and Bridgestone celebrated one of the strongest partnerships in professional sports by announcing an extension to naming rights agreement for Bridgestone Arena through 2030.

Initiated by former Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen and approved by the Metro/Davidson County Council in 1993, Bridgestone Arena uniquely embraces Nashville's heritage as "Music City, USA." The arena was designed as a tribute to Nashville's music roots, with the entrance positioned on the corner of Fifth Avenue and historic Broadway, facing the Ryman Auditorium – the original home of the Grand Ole Opry.

The one million-square-foot facility has also spurred downtown growth in the last 10-plus years, inspiring further development that includes the Country Music Hall of Fame, Music City Center, Frist Museum of the Visual Arts, Schermerhorn Symphony Center, multiple hotels (Hilton, Omni, Hyatt, Westin and JW Marriott), Encore Condominiums, Pinnacle at Symphony Place office building, Fifth + Broadway and the Downtown Public Library. According to the Nashville Downtown Partnership, there are 319 dining options, 111 shopping options, 60 live music venues, 138 nightlife options and 25 art galleries in the downtown area, as of October 2020, with more businesses coming soon. In fall 2017, Bridgestone Americas fully relocated its headquarters to a 30-story building two blocks from the arena.

A report issued in 2017 estimated that Bridgestone Arena and the Predators generate an annual economic impact of approximately $560 million. More than 3,800 jobs are supported annually by the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena. Nearly two-thirds of attendees at all Bridgestone Arena events come from outside of Davidson County, creating a pure economic impact to Davidson County in dollars spent by out-of-county visitors.

Furthermore, during the team's 2017 Stanley Cup Playoff run, it was estimated that during the four rounds, close to $2.7 million was generated for the city through ticket, merchandise and concessions sales taxes; the overall economic impact from a record 11 home playoff games (three Stanley Cup Final, three Western Conference Final, three Second Round and two First Round) was over $50 million.

Bridgestone Arena also hosts a variety of non-traditional functions for Davidson County, the city of Nashville and local residents. Bridgestone Arena tower is home to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, a SiriusXM studio and the Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau, which hosts more than 500,000 tourists annually. Bridgestone Arena features the Patrón Platinum Club, a 260-seat fine-dining experience located on the building's suite level, which is open before and after games and concerts and hosts several banquets and receptions. Added prior to the 2019-20 season was Hap & Harry's Taproom, a premium suite located on the Gary Force Acura Club Level. With space to accommodate up to 40 people, a full-service bar, unlimited food and beverage, stage-front sightlines for concerts and in-seat wait service, Hap & Harry's Taproom provides an unmatched experience for large groups. Lexus Lounge, an exclusive event-level club that is home to the world's first convex-curved 2mm LED wall offering a live panoramic view of the ice, features luxurious amenities such as personal concierge service, plush seating and special-themed buffets. Additionally, two Bunker Suites next to Lexus Lounge offer a private event viewing space that includes food and beverage and is a great corporate outing locale.

Continuously upgrading to improve the experience of every fan, guest, performer and athlete, Bridgestone Arena underwent over $8 million in renovations during the summer of 2019, bringing the total to over $80 million in renovations over the last several years.

The arena also houses more than 6,000 square feet of meeting room space and a 13,500-square-foot rehearsal hall that is available for rent and used more than 200 days a year by national touring acts. Metro Nashville and Davidson County's Registry of Deeds is also located inside the Bridgestone Arena.

The list of acts that have called Bridgestone Arena home is lengthy and includes the Country Music Association Awards; the Country Music Television Awards; Keith Urban's "We're All For the Hall" benefit concerts; NCAA, SEC and OVC Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments, the 2014 NCAA Women's Final Four; and entertainers such as Madonna, Garth Brooks, Paul McCartney, Elton John, Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, KISS, Dave Matthews Band, Metallica, Taylor Swift, Justin Timberlake and Katy Perry. Bridgestone Arena is in the midst of hosting 12 consecutive SEC Basketball Championships (SEC Men's Tournament: 2015-17, 2019-21, 2023-25; SEC Women's Tournament: 2018, 2022, 2026). Five seasons ago, the arena hosted the 2016 NHL All-Star Game, putting on one of the most successful experiences in league history and paving the way for Bridgestone Arena to host the 2017 Stanley Cup Final.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS FOUNDATION

Established in 1998, the Nashville Predators Foundation empowered by SmileDirectClub ("Predators Foundation") strives to build philanthropic partnerships within our community to successfully leverage the unique assets and skills of our entire organization to improve the lives of youth and their families.

Annually, the Predators Foundation distributes more than $2 million in funding to non-profits in Middle Tennessee. Using funds generated by a variety of annual fundraising events, the Predators Foundation has awarded more than $7 million in grants since its inception, including a record $700,000 during the 2019-20 season.

Introduced during the 2019-20 season as a part of the groundbreaking partnership between the Predators Foundation and Nashville-based SmileDirectClub, multiple SuperGrants, which range from $25,000 to $100,000, will be awarded each season to Middle Tennessee community organizations for a total of $250,000 per year. Funding will be allocated for the purpose of completing large-scale projects in support of empowering lives during times of transition. Last season's SuperGrant recipients included Friends Life Community, My Friend's House, Operation Stand Down Tennessee, ShowerUp and Thistle Farms.

FIRST HORIZON BRENT PETERSON CELEBRITY GOLF CLASSIC

The Predators Foundation and the Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's hosted the 10th Annual First Horizon Brent Peterson Celebrity Golf Classic on Sept. 14, 2020. Although the First Horizon Petey's Preds Party could not take place due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the two-flight golf tournament and silent auction at Vanderbilt Legends Club raised $100,000 that was split evenly between the Predators Foundation and the Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's. For more information please visit NashvillePredators.com/golf and NashvillePredators.com/petey.

CATCHIN' DEERS MIKE FISHER CELEBRITY CLAY SHOOT

PRESENTED BY COOPER STEEL

The Predators Foundation hosted the second annual CATCHIN' DEERS Mike Fisher Celebrity Clay Shoot presented by Cooper Steel on Oct. 27, 2020. The event featured a fun morning of clay shooting hosted by former Predators Captain Mike Fisher. The 100-bird course clay shooting tournament took place at the Nashville Gun Club along the beautiful Cumberland River. Each team of four was paired with a celebrity and the event also included an exclusive gift bag and prizes. The event raised $80,000, with the funds split between Cottage Cove, Nashville Inner City Ministry, Room in the Inn and Rocketown.

PREDS & PINS

PRESENTED BY UNITEDHEALTHCARE

The Predators Foundation hosts its annual Preds & Pins presented by UnitedHealthcare bowling fundraiser at Hermitage Strike & Spare in December. This casual evening features two hours of bowling, a buffet and photo opportunities with Preds players, GNASH and local celebrities. Last year's event raised more than $30,000, with all proceeds benefiting the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt through the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Twice Daily. For more information, please visit NashvillePredators.com/bowling.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS FISHING TOURNAMENT

SPONSORED BY BASS PRO SHOPS & GUY HARVEY

Fishing enthusiasts spent an afternoon on the water on Sept. 26, 2020 at Old Hickory Lake with the Predators Foundation at the Fourth Annual Nashville Predators Fishing Tournament presented by Bass Pro Shops and Guy Harvey. This event offered participants the opportunity to fish with Predators Assistant GM Brian Poile, Radio Analyst Hal Gill and Major League Fishing professional anglers Ott DeFoe, Mike McClelland, Timmy Horton and David Walker. It also featured a silent auction that included specialty Preds and fishing items. Nearly $20,000 was raised by the event, with all proceeds benefiting the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Twice Daily. For more information, please visit NashvillePredators.com/fishing.

GNASHVEGAS CASINO NIGHT & AUCTION

PRESENTED BY KING JEWELERS

GnashVegas Casino Night & Auction presented by King Jewelers, last held in March 2019, features the opportunity to challenge Roman Josi to a game of blackjack, see if your poker face is better than Pekka Rinne's or join Ryan Johansen as he rolls the dice at the craps table. Fans are invited to mix and mingle at the casino tables with Preds players, coaches and broadcasters, enjoy delicious food from local restaurants and sip on beverages from an open bar. This exciting event, which typically raises around $150,000 annually, also features one-of-a-kind auction packages and priceless experiences. VIP guests will be invited to a reception with the team prior to the main event. For more information, please visit NashvillePredators.com/gala.

WINE FESTIVAL & TASTING

PRESENTED BY DEACON'S NEW SOUTH

First held in 2006, the Nashville Predators Foundation Wine Festival & Tasting presented by Deacon's New South takes place over the ice at Bridgestone Arena in the spring. In previous years, the Festival has raised more than $120,000 and featured samples of more than 220 wines, beers and liquors, many of which came from local Tennessee craftsmen. The event also includes culinary delicacies from local restaurants, a complimentary Preds-branded glass and photo opportunities with Predators mascot GNASH. The VIP portion of the event features a dinner and tasting hosted by a different wine vendor each year in the Patron Platinum Club that includes a five-course dinner with wine pairings. For more information, please visit NashvillePredators.com/wine.

365 PEDIATRIC CANCER FUND
PRESENTED BY TWICE DAILY

Spearheaded by the leadership of Preds goaltender Pekka Rinne and former Preds Captain Shea Weber, the Nashville Predators Foundation formed the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Twice Daily in 2014 (formerly the Nashville Predators Pediatric Cancer Research Fund), which goes to help fund pediatric cancer research at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt. The Preds raise money for the 365 Fund presented by Twice Daily through Hockey Fights Cancer games, silent and blind auctions, mystery pucks, fan donations and more. More than $100,000 was raised in November and December of 2020, bringing the total to $3.3 million since the start of the program. For more information about the 365 Fund, visit NashvillePredators.com/365fund.

PREDS & THREADS FASHION SHOW
PROVIDED BY DILLARDS, THE MALL AT GREEN HILLS & KING JEWELERS

During the 2017-18 season, the Predators Foundation held its first Preds & Threads Fashion Show provided by Dillards, The Mall at Green Hills and King Jewelers. This event featured all the players on the team's roster strutting their stuff down the runway along with their significant others and children from local youth charities. Guests also enjoyed a cocktail hour before the show with Preds coaches, broadcasters and alumni and had the chance to bid on an extensive auction. For more information, please visit NashvillePredators.com/fashion.

KABOOM!
TYPICALLY HELD EACH FALL

The Nashville Predators Foundation typically teams up with KaBOOM! – a national nonprofit dedicated to bringing balanced and active play to all kids – to build a new playground in the Nashville area. Last year, volunteers from the Predators, other local organizations including BlueCare Tennessee, Change Healthcare, Hunt Brothers, Jackson, LP Building Products, MAPCO, Piedmont Natural Gas, PNC Bank, NES and 102.5 The Game came together to build a new playground for KIPP Antioch College Prep, designed by the children who will use it, in just one day. The 2020 build marked the eight consecutive year that the Preds have partnered with KaBOOM! and the ninth playground that the Predators have built in Middle Tennessee (the organization built two in 2014).

HOCKEY FIGHTS CANCER
NOVEMBER 2020

Every season, the Nashville Predators host two Hockey Fights Cancer Nights as part of a League-wide initiative. These nights benefit the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Twice Daily at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt and include donations collected at all main entrances and silent auctions that feature specialty jerseys worn by the players. Despite the lack of a traditional setting to raise funds and spread awareness, Nashville's 2020 Hockey Fights Cancer efforts raised more than $90,000 through the sale of Preds-themed HFC merchandise, fan contributions and multiple auctions among other things. Preds players also made virtual visits to raise the spirits of the patients at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS CRAFT BEER FESTIVAL
PRESENTED BY ALLEGIANT AIR

During the summer, the Nashville Predators welcome beer lovers inside Bridgestone Arena to sample beer from more than 80 different breweries at the Nashville Predators Craft Beer Festival presented by Allegiant Air. In addition to receiving unlimited tastings, attendees also received a commemorative glass. The 2019 festival raised nearly $70,000. For the second time, Red Silo Brewery was voted by the guests as the favorite brewery during the 2019 festival. For more information, please visit NashvillePredators.com/beer.

MYSTERY PUCKS

The Predators Foundation sells autographed pucks on select game nights through the "Mystery Pucks" fundraiser. At the game, fans have the opportunity to select a wrapped, themed puck autographed by a Predators player with select pucks specialized for buyers to receive an extra prize.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS FOUNDATION

DONATION REQUESTS

The Nashville Predators are committed to positively influencing the community far beyond the game. The team's Community Relations department assists non-profit charities and other businesses to raise money for their own causes and provides hundreds of items annually to organizations for fundraising. To request a non-monetary donation for your event, please visit NashvillePredators.com/donations.

GRANT RECIPIENTS

In April 2020, the Predators Foundation distributed 168 grants totaling $700,000 to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-based community service and charitable organizations, the largest one-time allocation in team history. This year's sum brings the total allocation to more than $7.2 million over 22 years.

JACK DILLER EDUCATION AWARD

Each season, the Predators Foundation awards four high school seniors the Jack Diller Education Award in the amount of $2,500 each. Since its inception, $150,000 has been distributed to 60 students. Applicants must reside within Middle Tennessee and excel in academics, athletics and volunteerism. The four winning students are recognized during a Predators home game. For more information, please visit NashvillePredators.com/dilleraward.

GAME-NIGHT AUCTIONS

The Predators Foundation hosts an online auction in conjunction with every Nashville Predators home game. By texting "Preds" to 76278, fans both at the game and around the world can bid and take home items in support of the Predators Foundation. The auctions include a wide variety of autographed merchandise from across the sports world, one-of-a-kind Predators items like holiday baskets stuffed with each players' favorite goodies, unique Tennessee souvenirs and more. Hockey fans can also view items up for auction during home games in the Predators Foundation area outside of Sections 106-107.

BIRTHDAY & SPECIAL SCOREBOARD MESSAGES

For a donation to the Predators Foundation, fans have an opportunity to put birthday, anniversary and engagement announcements on the Bridgestone Arena scoreboard during Predators home games. In-game scoreboard message rates are $50. To schedule, please visit NashvillePredators.com/scoreboard or contact the team's Community Relations department at 615-770-2331.

ZAMBONI RIDES & PENALTY BOX VISITS

For a $100 donation to the Predators Foundation, Preds fans can ride the Zamboni or have the opportunity to sit in the visiting team's penalty box during the team's pregame skate. For more information or to schedule an opportunity, please visit NashvillePredators.com/zamboni or contact the team's Community Relations department at 615-770-2331.

DEX SCORE & WIN

During the 2019-20 season, every time a Preds player scored a goal or recorded a goaltending win, DEX Imaging made a donation to the Predators Foundation through the DEX Score & Win program. Last season, the program's 15th, $28,500 was raised for distribution to 10 Middle Tennessee charities. Since its inception in the 2005-06 season, the program has raised more than $449,000 for charities.

HEARTS OF GOLD

The Predators are committed to the underlying team mission of "work hard, play hard and provide outrageous customer and community service." Every member of the Predators organization can be found giving back to the community throughout the season – from ownership and players to management and staff – through our Hearts of Gold initiative. As a staff, the goal is to reach 8,000 total volunteer hours each season.

This commitment to the community is seen through various initiatives. A few of the Predators' 2019-20 initiatives included food drives, blood drives, annual holiday toy drive, hospital visits, Thanksgiving turkey deliveries, pet supply drives, a holiday party for kids and Hockey Fights Cancer awareness night.

PLAYER COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

ROMAN JOSI
BEST BUDDIES TENNESSEE

Back for a third season, Roman Josi provides tickets for a different buddy pair from Best Buddies to attend the game. The pair participate in the high-five line before the game meeting players as they head to the ice. He also is donating his personal suite throughout the year to be auctioned off to raise additional funds for Best Buddies and will attend the organization's annual prom and gala.

FILIP FORSBERG
MAKE-A-WISH MIDDLE TENNESSEE

Ford Ice Center Bellevue hosted the Filip Forsberg Hockey Clinic presented by Delta Dental of Tennessee that benefits Make-A-Wish Middle Tennessee on Nov. 7, 2020. The clinic, which raised $25,000, featured 100 youth hockey players, ages 7-14, hitting the ice for an afternoon of fun and learning. All proceeds from the clinic went to Make-A-Wish Middle Tennessee.

MATTIAS EKHOLM
ON ICE WITH EKKY

Mattias Ekholm and his wife, Ida Björnstad, launched a youth hockey program for Nashville-area kids aimed at introducing them to the sport. "On Ice with Ekky" is a six-week, hockey curriculum designed to be taken through public education classes in local schools. Upon completion of the program, the kids will have the opportunity to continue learning more about how to play the game in the Predators' array of youth hockey programs.

PREDATORS' LEADERSHIP GROUP
BLUELINE BUDDIES

During every Nashville Predators home game last season, the Predators' leadership group hosted the Blueline Buddies program, originally started by former player P.K. Subban, which brings together a member of the Metro Nashville Police Department and an inner-city youth from a local organization. The evening included game tickets, a dinner in Bridgestone Arena's Patron Platinum Club (donated by Levy Restaurants) and a meet-and-greet with a member of the leadership group before and after the game.

PEKKA RINNE
365 PEDIATRIC CANCER FUND PRESENTED BY TWICE DAILY

The 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Twice Daily, which was started by Pekka Rinne and former Predators Captain Shea Weber, presented a $470,000 check in October 2019 to the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt to help fund pediatric cancer research. As part of the fund, Rinne purchases two suites at Bridgestone Arena that accommodates 32 children and families from the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt for all Preds home games. A night in the suite includes food and beverages, knee hockey with a real goal light, 365 Fund t-shirts and postgame meet and greets with Rinne and his teammates.

RYAN JOHANSEN
YOUTH HOCKEY

At select home games, Ryan Johansen donates his personal suite to be auctioned off to raise money to fund and enhance local youth hockey programs and initiatives Middle Tennessee. Organizations that benefit from this donation include the American Special Hockey Association, Hendersonville Inline Hockey Association, Nashville Elite Hockey Club, National Wheelcats, Scott Hamilton Skating Academy and Youth Incorporated Inline Hockey.

COLTON SISSONS, DANTE FABBRO & RYAN JOHANSEN
CHARITY HOLIDAY PARTY

This season, Colton Sissons, Dante Fabbro and Ryan Johansen teamed up with Predators staff members to host a 12 Days of Smashville Christmas with our friends at Youth Villages. For the 12 days leading up to Christmas, three group homes from Youth Villages received gifts on their doorsteps delivered by Predators staff and players. Gifts ranged from Christmas trees and holiday decorations to necessities like towels, pajamas, socks and Predators gear.

YOUTH HOCKEY & FAN DEVELOPMENT

Since its first season as a National Hockey League franchise in 1998-99, the Nashville Predators have been at the forefront of growing the sport of hockey in the Middle Tennesee community.

With the opening of Ford Ice Center Antioch in 2014, and the organization's facility in Bellevue in 2019, the Preds have consistently worked to enhance the awareness and opportunity for youth hockey in Tennessee.

The Predators have created partnerships with local youth hockey associations and assist with fundraising, hockey education and additional ice time to promote the growth of the sport at the grassroots level.

The Nashville Predators also assist area youth hockey organizations by providing coaches and players clinics, ice time at Bridgestone Arena and funding for uniforms. Area youth players are also frequently featured during intermissions at Predators home games.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS KIDS CLUB
PRESENTED BY DELTA DENTAL

The Nashville Predators Kids Club presented by Delta Dental provides an opportunity for kids and families alike to get involved with the team during the 2020-21 season. The Predators Kids Club is filled with exciting features, events, member benefits and more. Fans can sign up for the Kids Club at the Delta Dental Kids Zone outside section 108 during all Nashville Predators home games or at NashvillePredators.com/kidsclub.

HOCKEY & HEELS
PRESENTED BY HERMITAGE

Hockey & Heels presented by Hermitage is an event for women to get an inside look at the Predators organization. This fun-filled evening includes on-ice demonstrations, locker room tours, a behind-the-scenes look at the team's event presentation and a "Hockey 101" segment featuring Preds broadcasters and special guests.

SMASHVILLE STREET HOCKEY

The Nashville Predators partner with Metro Parks and Rec, YMCA of Middle Tennessee and after-school groups to provide programs with street hockey sticks, balls, nets and goals. The Predators also provide start-up hockey instruction for coaching and administration, manuals for staff and participants and follow-ups with program centers that culminates with an end of the year street hockey tournament. This free, grassroots hockey development program emphasizes that all a child needs to play hockey are sneakers, breaking down any socio-economic barriers associated with the sport.

GET OUT AND LEARN! (G.O.A.L!)
PRESENTED BY ERIE INSURANCE

The Get Out and Learn! (G.O.A.L!) program presented by Erie Insurance introduces the game of hockey to everyone without the financial commitment typically associated with the sport. This free, introductory program is designed for those with no prior experience and is offered in weekly sessions throughout the year at local rinks. The Predators provide all necessary equipment, ice time and instruction, making the program ideal for any family. The Preds are dedicated to supporting the development of youth hockey at all levels and recognize the need for local skating facilities to be accessible for beginners to help grow the sport, beginning at younger ages. Since its inception in the fall of 2006, more than 6,000 kids have graduated from G.O.A.L!

TAKING HOCKEY TO THE STREETS

Taking Hockey to the Streets is a grassroots marketing initiative in which members of the Predators organization make unannounced visits to neighborhoods where kids routinely gather to play street hockey. The visit includes a street hockey game, giveaways for the young players and special appearances by players, coaches and Preds mascot GNASH.

PREDATORS HOCKEY SCHOOL

The Predators host two weeks of hockey school, open to boys and girls ages 6-14, each July at the Ford Ice Centers. Youth attending the hockey school are challenged daily with more than two hours of ice time, intensive dry-land conditioning, video analysis, and "chalk talk" sessions. Hockey School emphasizes the basic fundamentals of hockey – stickhandling, power skating, shooting and passing. Other features of the camp include daily lectures on nutrition, injury prevention and equipment maintenance.

LITTLE PREDS LEARN TO PLAY

Little Preds Learn to Play, which is partially funded by the NHL and NHLPA's Industry Growth Fund, is a multi-year, multi-city endeavor by the Nashville Predators and participating ice rinks in an effort to reduce cost barriers associated with an introductory program. Each session runs for 6-8 weeks and is designed for boys and girls ages 4-9 who have never played hockey. Participants receive weekly on-ice instruction, Predators alumni appearances, a full set of hockey equipment and Predators Kids Club membership.

YOUTH HOCKEY & FAN DEVELOPMENT

The Scott Hamilton Skating Academy mission is "to make skating available to people of all ages, ability and description. At the same time, creating an environment of joy in learning how to skate." Further, the mission of our combined programs is to fulfill the goals and vision of the Scott Hamilton Skating Academy and Nashville Predators, in partnership with SHARP 4 Sports, to develop beginners through world class elite athletes in a joyful, fun and creative atmosphere.

PREDecessor

PREDecessor is a continue-to-play program for participants that graduated from the Little Preds Learn to Play program but are not ready for youth league. This program puts an emphasis on the core skating fundamentals along with a feel for the puck and general hockey knowledge. It will teach positions, concepts and rules for playing the game, all while continuing to build a player's competency in their individual skills.

GO SKATE!

Go Skate! is a free learn-to-skate program proudly presented by the Scott Hamilton Skating Academy, Ford Ice Centers, Nashville Predators and the NHL/NHLPA Industry Growth Fund. This unique program encourages first-time skaters between the ages of 5-12 to learn to ice skate in a fun and encouraging environment, at no cost. The program includes a free seven-week session of Scott Hamilton Skating Academy's learn to skate classes with a free pair of hockey or figure skates at graduation, as well as a $45 discount off an athlete's second session of learn to skate. The program launched in 2016 and has granted over 2,200 skaters with free classes and skates, removing economical barriers and making skating accessible for first timers. Go Skate! is currently being offered at both Ford Ice Centers.

PREDS ALL-STARS

Preds All-Stars is a program launching during the 2020-21 season that is designed to provide a hockey league for people with intellectual disabilities and other special needs. There are no skill requirements to participate. Players are encouraged to learn at their own speed to score goals. Players gain self-confidence and self-esteem from the help of our dedicated coaches.

SCOTT'S ALL-STARS

Scott's All-Stars is a program providing learn-to-skate classes for children with intellectual disabilities and other special needs. Our incredible team of coaches is dedicated to helping skaters learn and have fun at a comfortable pace and in a safe and sensory friendly space. In addition to the learn to skate program itself, we are proud to provide support and programming for parents and caregivers while continuing education for staff and coaches.

LEARN TO SKATE

The Scott Hamilton Skating Academy's Learn-to-Skate program - the largest in the South and in the Top 10 in the country - uses the Learn to Skate USA curriculum. The program is designed to serve the needs of both recreational and competitive skaters by teaching figure skating and hockey skills. All of our coaches are committed to sharing a fun and positive experience that will instill a lifelong love of skating. Our mission is to make skating available to people of all ages, descriptions and ambitions.

NPAHA YOUTH HOUSE LEAGUE

This recreational league provides participants the opportunity to develop individual and team hockey skills in a fun, relaxed environment. Its goal is to not only develop a player's hockey skills, but to create an environment where youth can learn valuable life skills such as teamwork, good sportsmanship, a positive attitude and a good work ethic. The emphasis of the programming, whether learning how to stop or perfecting the wrist shot, will be on being "better than before." Continuous improvement will be a theme utilized throughout much of our programming, executed in a measurable and meaningful way. The league is offered year-round and consists of more than 400 young hockey players fielding teams in the following age divisions: Termite (6U), Mite (8U), Squirt (10U), Peewee (12U) and Bantam/Midget (13+). In 2019-20, more than 1,100 players played within the House League across the fall, winter, spring and summer seasons.

NPAHA ADULT HOCKEY LEAGUE

Adults can join in the fun of playing hockey with the Nashville Predators Amateur Hockey Association Adult Leagues. Whether you are a beginner who has just started the game, an experienced player or somewhere in between, Ford Ice Center has a league for you. Leagues run year-round (fall/winter, spring and summer) and include playoffs and championships. Our USA Hockey-sanctioned league hosts more than 1,100 adult players and offers competition for all level of play for adults ages 18 and over. We have grown from seven teams in 2014-15 to 94 teams across 11 divisions in the 2020-21 season.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS SELECT

The Nashville Predators Select Travel Hockey Program (Preds Select) will play under the Nashville Predators Amateur Hockey Association and aims to provide Middle Tennessee youth hockey players an environment to be better athletes, better individuals and better players with a commitment to positive, fun and progressive skill development through community and sport. Preds Select is the organization's first official travel hockey program. They compete at the Tier II level and will offer teams in the 10U, 12U, 14U and 16U age divisions for the 2020-21 season.

PREDS FITNESS CHALLENGE

Preds Fitness Challenge is an initiative designed to fit within the current P.E. curriculum and aims to keep children active and encourage them to make healthy choices. It requires students to complete five challenges centered on staying active, choosing healthy eating habits, and an introduction to street hockey throughout the school year. Schools receive a welcome DVD with videos by the Preds' Strength Coach David Good, 60 sticks and balls, pop-up nets, fitness wall charts, bracelets and charms to track student progress, a nutrition worksheet and teacher manual. The program typically launches with a Teach the Teacher event at Bridgestone Arena to watch morning skate followed by street hockey instruction.

PREDATORS CUP

The Predators Cup is the annual Tennessee State High School Hockey Championship tournament. Established during the 1999-00 season, it serves as a platform to highlight the top high school hockey teams in the state and is hosted by the Nashville Predators each spring at Bridgestone Arena. Since the inaugural tournament, 14 teams from Middle Tennessee, three teams from Memphis and one team from Knoxville have won the Predators Cup.

PREDS GIRLS HOCKEY

The Nashville Predators are committed to the growth of girls hockey. The new Preds Girls Hockey program will introduce girls ages 4-17 to hockey at no cost with funding from the NHL and NHLPA's Industry Growth Fund. The program will include free on-ice sessions for 12 weeks and equipment to keep.

BLUECROSS BLUESHEILD BLUELINER OF THE GAME

An opportunity to experience the excitement from ice-level offered as a ticket package during Predators home games. Youth hockey players ages 7-14 get the opportunity of a lifetime as their name is called during the after the starting lineup is announced; they skate to the blue line and then stand alongside their favorite Predators player during the National Anthem.

FUTURE GOALS - HOCKEY SCHOLAR™

POWERED BY EVERFI

The Future Goals – Hockey Scholar™ online course is a free, unique tool that leverages the exciting game of hockey to teach science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) concepts to students in grades 4-8. This course, aligned to state science and math standards, also introduces students to STEM careers in hockey.

ADVANCED PROGRAM

The Advanced Program is a program designed for youth league participants who are on the cusp of playing travel hockey. The program offers challenging practices, competition and a higher level of play to help get them to that next level of hockey. The goal is to properly prepare and elevate each child's playing ability so they can make a travel team in the upcoming season.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS JV PROGRAM

The Nashville Predators JV Program aims to provide a supplement league to our Greater Nashville Scholastic Hockey League for those players looking to gain the experience for more ice time. Registered teams will use this program in order to help bolster the development of each player's respective school teams.

SKATE AT BRIDGESTONE ARENA

Rise and Grind Morning Hockey takes place in the early morning hours at Bridgestone Arena and gives adults (ages 18+) the opportunity to get a quick skate in before work. All levels are welcome and sessions are open to the first 26 skaters and four goalies. Pucks and Pints Happy Hour open hockey is in its sixth year at Bridgestone Arena. All levels are welcome, but participants must be at least 21 years of age and provide their own equipment. Each session includes 60 minutes of ice and a complimentary "pint" at Pete and Terry's Tavern following the session.

MILWAUKEE ADMIRALS COACHING STAFF

KARL TAYLOR
HEAD COACH

Karl Taylor enters his third season as Head Coach of the Milwaukee Admirals in 2020-21. Taylor owns a record of 77-38-19-5 in 139 games as head coach of Nashville's AHL affiliate.

Last season, his second behind the Admirals bench, Taylor led the club to a 41-14-5-3 record, an AHL-leading 90 points and the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy, awarded to the AHL's regular-season champions. For his efforts, Taylor was honored with the Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award, given to the AHL's most outstanding coach. Milwaukee's dominant 2019-20 season was highlighted by its defense, which allowed a league-low 2.24 goals per game, while the team's offense ranked seventh in scoring (3.35) for the third-highest goals-per-game differential (+1.11) in the AHL's last decade. Reinforcing his proven track record of developing talent, eight players who skated for the Admirals in 2019-20 also competed in an NHL game for the Predators, including Yakov Trenin, who featured in 21 contests for Nashville, and Mathieu Olivier, who made his NHL debut on Nov. 19, 2019.

In 2018-19, his first season behind the Admirals bench, Taylor led the club to the Calder Cup Playoffs for the first time since 2017, finishing with a 36-24-14-2 (88 points) regular-season record and a second-place finish in the Central Division. Under Taylor's tutelage, Anthony Richard and Colin Blackwell made their NHL debuts with the Predators and defenseman Matt Donovan – thanks to an 11-goal, 35-point season – earned an NHL call-up for the first time in four seasons. Additionally, six players established AHL career highs in points and Milwaukee allowed 207 goals, the eighth-fewest in the AHL.

Before joining the organization, the 49-year-old North Bay, Ont., native spent four seasons with the AHL's Texas Stars as an assistant coach. In Texas, Taylor's teams went a combined 152-108-30-14 and made the playoffs in three of his four seasons. His tenure was headlined by the Stars' appearance in the 2018 Calder Cup Finals, where they came one game from claiming the AHL title, falling to the Toronto Marlies in Game 7. With Taylor behind the bench, Texas earned at least 90 points in three seasons, including the 2017-18 season's 90-point effort (38-24-8-6) that culminated with the AHL's Western Conference Championship. Taylor also spent one season as an assistant coach for the Western Hockey League's Portland Winterhawks in 2013-14, where they finished second in the WHL's regular-season standings with 113 points (54-13-5 record). Taylor helped guide the Winterhawks to the WHL Finals as the 2014 WHL Western Conference Champions, where they fell to the Edmonton Oil Kings in seven games.

Before jumping to the WHL, Taylor served as an assistant coach with the AHL's Chicago Wolves in 2011-12, where he won the Midwest Division, and was a head coach in the ECHL for six seasons from 2005-11. He was at the helm of the Reading Royals from 2005-08, making the playoffs in two of his three campaigns, amassing a 112-82-22 record in the process. Taylor then became the first head coach of the ECHL's Ontario Reign from 2008-11, leading them to the playoffs in their inaugural season. He finished second in the John Brophy Award voting for ECHL coach of the year in 2008-09.

Taylor played three seasons in the Ontario Hockey League with the Windsor Spitfires, London Knights and North Bay Centennials, tallying 35 points (16g-19a) in 137 games from 1988-91. Following his junior career, he played for the University of New Brunswick from 1991-95, serving as an alternate captain in his final three seasons. Taylor also spent time as a head coach at Red Deer College in Alberta and the University of Waterloo before landing his first professional coaching job.

Taylor and his wife, Bev, reside in Hartland, Wis., with their son, Mac, and daughter, Kate.

SCOTT FORD
ASSISTANT COACH

Scott Ford enters his sixth season as an assistant coach for the Milwaukee Admirals in 2020-21 after helping to guide the Admirals to the AHL's Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy as the league's regular-season champions in 2019-20. Ford will work alongside Admirals Head Coach Karl Taylor and Assistant Coach Greg Rallo.

Ford finished an 11-year playing career in 2014-15, splitting time with the Admirals and the South Carolina Stingrays. He skated in 12 games with Milwaukee that season, posting a pair of assists and 14 penalty minutes. The Brown University alum helped the Stingrays to an ECHL-record 23-game winning streak and a berth in the Kelly Cup Final.

Overall, Ford spent parts of seven seasons with the Admirals, including two as team captain, and his 378 games played are the second-most in club AHL history. The Fort St. John, B.C., native posted 14 goals and 31 assists for 45 points, a +37 rating and 577 penalty minutes, the second-most in Milwaukee's AHL history. Ford is one of just four Milwaukee defensemen since 2004 to finish the season with a +20 rating or better (+24 in 2011-12).

GREG RALLO
ASSISTANT COACH

Greg Rallo enters his third season as an assistant coach for the Milwaukee Admirals in 2020-21. The 39-year-old native of Gurnee, Ill., played 12 seasons of professional hockey from 2005-17 that included stops in the NHL, AHL, ECHL and the German professional league.

Rallo competed in 11 NHL games with the Florida Panthers from 2011-13 and scored his first career NHL goal on April 2, 2013, against the Tampa Bay Lightning. In 615 career AHL contests, Rallo compiled 165 goals and 177 assists for 342 points, including a career-high 54 (26g-28a) with Texas in 2010-11. His AHL career featured stints with six different clubs and saw him captain the San Antonio Rampage in 2013-14 and serve as an alternate captain for the Texas Stars in 2015-16. Rallo also won the 2007 Kelly Cup as ECHL champion with the Idaho Steelheads, where he had 31 points (13g-18a) in 37 games.

Prior to his professional career, Rallo played four seasons for Ferris State University in the Central Collegiate Hockey Association from 2002-06, where he had 108 points (46g-62a) in 152 games. He also produced 1.30 points per game in junior hockey as a member of the North American Hockey League's Springfield Jr. Blues from 2000-02.

Rallo and his wife, Liana, have two daughters, Avery and Addison, and a son, Ryder.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mikael Granlund has the rare distinction of being honored with a postage stamp in his home country. After scoring a lacrosse-style goal against Russia at the 2011 IIHF World Championship, his native Finland plastered a picture of his tally on a stamp, which quickly sold out.

- Has scored four career overtime goals, with two coming in February 2019 for the Predators.
- Tallied a career-best 12-game point streak from Jan. 12-Feb. 4, 2017 in which he tallied five goals and 12 assists; the point streak also stood as a Wild franchise record.
- Recorded his second career hat trick on Dec. 29, 2017 against current teammate and close friend Pekka Rinne.
- Scored two seconds (19:46) after the Blue Jackets' Nick Foligno did (19:44) as Minnesota and Columbus combined to tie the NHL record for fastest two goals in League history on Jan. 5, 2016.
- Has represented his native Finland multiple times in international competition, winning Gold in the 2011 World Championship; also earned a silver medal at the 2016 World Championship and bronze at the 2009 and 2010 U-18 World Championships and 2014 Olympics.
- Named to the 2014 Olympic All-Star Team after recording seven points (3g-4a) in six games.
- Captained Finland at the 2012 World Junior Championship.
- Led HIFK to the 2011 Finnish Liiga championship, earning the Finnish Player of the Year award.
- His brother, Markus, has posted 101 points (58g-43a) in 335 career NHL games with Vancouver, Calgary and Edmonton.

2019-20 SEASON

- Established career highs in games played (40), starts (34) and shutouts (4) in 2019-20, his fourth full NHL season.
- Matched his career high in wins with 17; he previously won 17 games in 2018-19.
- His four shutouts were the most by a Predators goalie in a season other than Pekka Rinne since 2007-08 (Dan Ellis, 6; Chris Mason, 4).
- Went 12-5-0 in his final 17 starts of the regular season (dating back to Jan. 12); in that time span (minimum 10 games played), he tied for first in shutouts (4), was second in wins (12), tied for third in save percentage (.935) and fourth in goals-against average (2.13) among NHL goaltenders.
- Posted consecutive shutouts for the first time in his NHL career on March 5-7.
- His shutout on March 7 at Dallas was the 11th of his NHL career, the most among any active goaltender his age or younger.
- Recorded a career-best shutout streak of 181:07 from March 3-10, the second-longest in Predators history (Dan Ellis owns the franchise record at 233:39, set in 2008).
- Joined Rinne as the second Predators goaltender to post consecutive shutouts in 2019-20. It was the first time the Predators had two goaltenders accomplish the feat in the same season; Nashville also became the first team to do so since St. Louis in 2015-16.
- Started all four of Nashville's Stanley Cup Qualifying Round games against Arizona, becoming the first Predators goaltender other than Pekka Rinne to start a postseason game since 2008.
- Earned his first career postseason victory in Game 2 of Nashville's Qualifying Round series vs. the Coyotes, becoming the fifth goaltender in team history to record a playoff win.

Morozova of the Russian junior league ni 2018-19, going 15-12-4 with a 2.37 goals-against average and .921 save percentage.

SCOUTING REPORT: Athletic and dynamic... Quick reflexes with good glove... Explosive and plays with skill and instinct... Ability to track and anticipate is impressive.

QUOTEBOOK: "Iaroslav is an elite prospect. The talent level and the athleticism stands out right away. We compare his athleticism to that of Pekka Rinne or (Los Angeles Kings goalie) Jonathan Quick, and he's mature beyond his years in terms of his compete level and mental make-up. We believe he was the best player available, and if you have a franchise goaltender on your hands, which we do believe he will be, you're in a very good situation." - Predators Assistant General Manager/Director of Scouting Jeff Kealty

Played in 62 games for London in 2019-20, tallying 61 points (23g-38a), 57 of which came at even-strength... Netted six game-winning goals, the second-most on his team... Compared to his rookie OHL season in 2018-19 (two assists in 27 games), he posted a 59-point improvement... Skated in 27 games as an OHL rookie with London in 2018-19... Competed for Canada White at the 2018 World U-17 Hockey Challenge, posting an assist in five games... Is second cousins with two-time Stanley Cup champion and Hockey Fall of Famer Brendan Shanahan.

SCOUTING REPORT: Intelligent offensive player with good 200-foot details... Stays in battles by being strong on his stick... Natural hockey instincts... Smooth hands to execute plays in traffic... Shields pucks and attacks the middle of the ice... Moves the puck with purpose.

QUOTEBOOK: "He's a good offensive player who plays hard and is a good two-way forward. He does all the little things right. He's a very reliable player for London, and his hockey sense is off the charts. He's going to get bigger and stronger, and I think he is going to be a very good player for us." - Predators Amateur Scout Matt Paton

CAREER NOTES: Will play for the WHL's Calgary Hitmen in 2020-21... Was third among Hitmen blueliners in points in 2019-20 with a career-high 23 (4g-19a) in 59 games... Also established career highs in goals (4), assists (19) and plus-minus (+4)... Competed in the 2019 World U-17 Hockey Challenge as a member of Canada White, where he served as an alternate captain... Posted 10 points (1g-9a) in 62 games with Calgary in 2018-19... Added on four assists in 11 WHL playoff games... Skated in 14 games as a WHL rookie in 2017-18, tallying two assists... Product of the Pursuit of Excellence youth hockey program... Lists the Nashville Predators as his favorite NHL team growing up.

SCOUTING REPORT: Moves well for his size... Plays assertive... Not afraid to jump into the play or get involved offensively... Mobile and agile... Good first passes to break out of the zone.

QUOTEBOOK: "He certainly fills a role that we needed. We wanted some size, and we wanted a right-handed defenseman. He's very skilled and his agility for a 6-foot-4 guy is incredible. He's a very good athlete - not just a hockey player. I think he plays really similar to (Boston Bruins defenseman) Brandon Carlo." - Predators North American Amateur Scout Glen Sanders CAREER NOTES: Will play for the Swedish Hockey League's Skellefteå in 2020-21... Spent the majority of the 2019-20 season on loan with Södertälje in Sweden's second division, where he posted 30 points (3g-27a) in 41 games... His 27 assists were the most by a junior player in the league... Played in 13 games for Skellefteå's junior side... Made his professional debut with Skellefteå in 2018-19, appearing in nine games... Skated in 38 games for Skellefteå's junior team and led all league defensemen in assists (14) and points (17)... Product of the Skellefteå youth hockey program, which also developed Predators forward Viktor Arvidsson.

SCOUTING REPORT: Quick and light on his feet... Good transition skills... Handles pressure well... Uses his mobility and position to stay between his man and the net.

QUOTEBOOK: "He has a very good overall game and he certainly impressed me last season. He's an elite skater, has the ability to close time and space and is a very good puck mover who likes to join the rush and create offense from the back end. He's a bit quiet on the offensive blue line, but he always gets the puck through." - Predators European Scout Lucas Bergman

CAREER NOTES: Will play for the University of New Hampshire in 2020-21... Tallied two goals, 17 assists and 19 points for the second straight season for the USHL's Chicago Steel in 2019-20... Hit the 19-point mark in 15 fewer games compared to his 2018-19 season... Tied for the Steel lead in plus-minus in 2018-19 at +15... Added three assists in 11 USHL postseason contests... Spent the 2017-18 season with the BCHL's Penticton, where his 18 points (2g-16a) helped the Vees to a division title.

SCOUTING REPORT: Agile-skating, two-way defenseman... Makes good puck decisions and outlet passes... Jumps into the play... Distributes the puck well on the power play... Heavy shot.

QUOTEBOOK: "His style of defense works in today's NHL. He is a natural skater, makes good puck decisions and makes good first passes to get the puck out of the zone. He's active, involved and can jump into the play. His coaches at New Hampshire expect him to come in and be an impactful player as a freshman." - Predators North American Amateur Scout Dave Westby.

SCOUTING REPORT: Fits the power-forward mold... Can be trusted in all situations... Has no issues going to the hard areas of the ice... Strong on the puck.

QUOTEBOOK: "He is a legit, strong centerman who does everything. He can play on the penalty kill or power play, but the thing that we really liked about him was how hard he was. He can play a hard game, but he makes plays and we think that side of his game is going to get better as he keeps developing." - Predators Chief Amateur Scout Tom Nolan

PREDATORS SEASON NOTES

PREDS' POSTSEASON STREAK CONTINUES

- The Nashville Predators ended the 2019-20 NHL regular season with 78 points and a 35-26-8 record in 69 games played, equating to a .565 point percentage.
- Following the pause, and subsequent cancellation of the remainder of the regular season, the Predators finished sixth in the Western Conference in point percentage, allowing the club to participate in the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers.
- By playing in its best-of-five Stanley Cup Qualifying Round series against the Arizona Coyotes, Nashville pushed its postseason streak to six seasons, the longest in franchise history.
- Nashville has enjoyed postseason hockey in every season since 2014-15, tied for the second-longest active streak (with Washington), trailing only Pittsburgh's run of 14 seasons.

LONGEST ACTIVE POSTSEASON STREAKS

TEAM	POSTSEASON STREAK	LAST MISSED POSTSEASON
Pittsburgh	14 seasons	2005-06
Nashville/Washington	6 seasons	2013-14
Boston/Columbus/Toronto	4 seasons	2015-16

LONGEST POSTSEASON STREAKS - PREDATORS HISTORY

STREAK	SEASONS	BEST POSTSEASON RESULT
6 seasons	2015-20	Stanley Cup Final (2017)
4 seasons	2004-08	Western Conference First Round (2004-08)
3 seasons	2010-12	Western Conference Second Round (2011-12)

BENCH BOSS JOHN HYNES

- The Predators named John Hynes the third head coach in franchise history on Jan. 7.
- He made his Nashville head coaching debut on Jan. 7 vs. Boston; his first victory with the Predators came on Jan. 9 at Chicago.
- Hynes is 16-11-1 as head coach of the Predators.

SCOUTING THE PREDS

- The Predators earned a victory in at least half of their games in a season for the sixth straight campaign and 12th time in their 21-season history.
- Nashville averaged 33.1 shots per game, the fifth-most in the NHL.
- The Preds won 52.3 percent of their faceoffs, the fourth-best percentage in the NHL.
- Nashville had an even-strength goal differential of +12, the 10th-best mark in the League.
- Predators defensemen accounted for 165 points (39g-126a), the sixth-most in the NHL. Preds blueliners scored 39 goals, tied for the eighth-most in the League.
- Ten Nashville skaters scored at least 10 goals this season, tied for the second-most in the NHL.
- Nashville recorded seven shutouts this season, tied with Columbus for the second most in the NHL.
- The Preds scored at least four goals in 26 games; they scored at least five goals in 14 games.

LEAGUE'S BEST ON THE BLUE LINE

- Nashville Predators Captain Roman Josi won the 2020 James Norris Memorial Trophy, awarded annually "to the defense player who demonstrates throughout the season the greatest all-around ability in the position."
- Josi won the Norris Trophy after posting the best statistical season of his nine-year NHL tenure, establishing career highs in points (65), goals (16) and assists (49).
- Among NHL defensemen, he finished first in shots (260); second in points and assists; tied for second in goals; third in average time on ice (25:47); and fifth in power-play points (4g-19a-23pts).
- In addition to setting the Predators franchise record for points and assists by a defenseman in a season, Josi also was the only NHL blueliner to post at least 15 goals, 45 assists, 60 points, a +20 rating and 25:00 of average ice time during the 2019-20 campaign.
- Josi is the first player in Predators history to win the Norris Trophy and the second player to win a performance-based NHL award after his teammate Pekka Rinne won the 2018 Vezina Trophy.

THE POINT STREAK

- Roman Josi rattled off a record-setting 12-game point streak from Dec. 16-Jan. 9, in which he tallied seven goals and 20 points.
- It was a franchise-record point streak for a defenseman and the second-longest overall point streak in Predators history.
- It was the longest point streak by an NHL defenseman since Philadelphia's Shayne Gostisbehere's 15-game run in 2015-16.
- Josi became one of eight NHL blueliners in the last 20 years to record a point streak of at least 10 games.
- Josi also tallied a five-game goal streak (7g) from Dec. 16-23, the longest goal streak by an NHL defenseman since Washington's Mike Green posted an eight-game streak (10g) from Jan. 24-Feb. 14, 2009.

FEAR THE BEARD

- Predators Associate Captain Ryan Ellis posted 38 points (8g-30a) in 49 games this season, his ninth NHL campaign.
- Among NHL blueliners who appeared in at least 49 games, Ellis was tied for sixth in points per game (.78) and tied for 13th in plus-minus (+16).
- Ellis was three points shy of matching his career high of 41 (set in 2018-19) despite missing 20 games due to an upper-body injury sustained at the Winter Classic on Jan. 1.
- He was named the NHL's Second Star of the Week on March 2 after tallying seven points (1g-6a) in three games during the week.
- Ellis notched 11 multi-point games this season, a career high and tied for the sixth-most among NHL defensemen.
- He recorded a career-best five-game point streak (9a) from Oct. 12-22.

FANTASTIC FIL

- Filip Forsberg led the Predators in goals with 21 this season. It's the fourth time in his six full NHL seasons he has led or shared the Nashville lead in goals and the first time since 2016-17.
- Forsberg scored twice in Nashville's final game of the 2019-20 regular season to give him 21 goals. He became the first player in Predators history to record six 20-goal seasons, all of which have come consecutively since his first full NHL campaign in 2014-15.
- Forsberg is now tied with Shea Weber for the second-most goals in Predators history (166).
- The Leksand, Sweden, native has 23 career multi-goal performances, one shy of tying David Legwand (24) for the most in team history. His three-point performance (2g-1a) on March 10 at Montreal was his 20th career contest with at least three points, tying Steve Sullivan for the third-most in Preds history (most: Martin Erat, 23).

SPECTACULAR SAROS

- Goaltender Juuse Saros established career highs in games played (40), starts (34) and shutouts (4) in 2019-20, his fourth full NHL campaign.

- Saros matched his career high in wins with 17; he previously won 17 games in 2018-19.
- He recorded a career-best shutout streak of 181:07 from March 3-10, the second-longest in Predators history (Dan Ellis owns the franchise record at 233:39, set in 2008). Saros stopped 100 consecutive shots during the streak.
- After Pekka Rinne posted consecutive shutouts from Oct. 24-29, Saros joined him by blanking Dallas in two straight games from March 5-7. It was the first time the Predators had two goaltenders accomplish consecutive shutouts in the same season. Nashville also became the first team to do so since St. Louis in 2015-16.
- Saros recorded his 11th career shutout on March 7 at Dallas. He has posted the most shutouts among any active goaltender his age or younger.
- His four shutouts were a career high and were the most by a Predators goalie in a season other than Rinne since 2007-08 (Dan Ellis, 6; Chris Mason, 4).

GOAL OF THE YEAR

- Goaltender Pekka Rinne achieved another milestone on Jan. 9 at Chicago, firing a shot from nearly 200-feet into an empty Blackhawks net for his first career NHL goal. The goal came at 19:38 of the third period and sealed a 5-2 victory for Nashville, the first of John Hynes' tenure as head coach. After the Blackhawks' Patrick Kane wrung the puck along the boards, Rinne skated behind his goal, knocked it down with his pads and lofted a shot over multiple players before it bounced and slid into the net.
- Rinne became the 12th different goaltender in NHL history to score a goal in the regular season and the first to do so since Phoenix's Mike Smith on Oct. 19, 2013.
- Rinne also became the seventh different goaltender in NHL history to score on a shot on goal; Smith also was the last to do so.
- The Kempele, Finland, native joined Chris Mason as the only other goaltender in Predators history to score a goal. Mason was credited with a goal on April 15, 2006 vs. Phoenix.
- Nashville became the only franchise in NHL history to have two goaltenders credited with scoring a goal.
- Rinne is the second Finnish-born goaltender in NHL history to score a goal; Buffalo's Mika Noronen was credited with one on Feb. 14, 2004 against the Toronto Maple Leafs.

HOCKEY HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

PETER FORSBERG | FORWARD | INDUCTED: NOVEMBER 17, 2014

The Predators acquired seven-time All-Star and two-time Stanley Cup champion Peter Forsberg from the Philadelphia Flyers on Feb. 15, 2007 in one of the largest trades in franchise history. Forsberg tallied 15 points (2g-13a) in 17 games for the Predators, helping the team finish the regular season with 51 wins - tied for the second-most in the NHL - and 110 points. Forsberg was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame on Nov. 17, 2014 after a legendary 13-season NHL career spent with Quebec, Colorado, Philadelphia and Nashville. He recorded 885 points (249g-636a) in 708 career NHL games from 1994-2010.

PAUL KARIYA | FORWARD | INDUCTED: NOVEMBER 13, 2017

Paul Kariya signed with Nashville as a free agent in the summer of 2005 and went on to help guide the team to two of its best seasons in franchise history in 2005-06 and 2006-07. Kariya began his Predators tenure by posting 85 points (31g-54a) and 54 assists - both single-season franchise records - in the 2005-06 campaign and went on to record 161 points (55g-106a) in 164 games with Nashville. Kariya, who was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame on Nov. 13, 2017, tallied exactly a point-per-game (402g-587a) in his 989-game NHL career with Anaheim, St. Louis, Nashville and Colorado.

February 28, 2010: Nashville defensemen Shea Weber (Canada) and Ryan Suter (United States) clashed in the gold medal game of the 2010 Vancouver Winter Olympics. Weber's Canadian squad claimed gold with a 3-2 overtime victory, with Suter earning silver while logging a game-high 31:31 of ice time. Weber was named to the Olympic All-Tournament Team.

March 1, 2010: The Predators ownership group announced a change in the leadership of its board of directors, as Tom Cigarran became the club's new chairman.

April 16, 2010: Led by two tallies by J-P Dumont, the Predators scored four straight third-period goals to claim a 4-1 victory over Chicago in Game 1 of their Western Conference Quarterfinal series. It is the first road playoff win in franchise history.

April 28, 2010: Predators Head Coach Barry Trotz is named a finalist for the Jack Adams Award, given annually to the NHL's top coach. It's the second time in franchise history someone from the organization is nominated for an NHL award. One week later, General Manager David Poile is revealed as one of three finalists for the inaugural GM of the Year Award.

July 8, 2010: Shea Weber is named the fifth captain in franchise history.

August 10, 2010: The Predators name Jeff Cogen as CEO and Sean Henry as President and COO.

January 30, 2011: Captain Shea Weber participated in his second straight All-Star Game, forming a pairing with future Hall-of-Famer Nicklas Lidstrom to post a +6 rating while racking up four assists, becoming just the second defenseman in All-Star Game history to amass four helpers.

February 10, 2011: The Predators acquired center Mike Fisher from the Ottawa Senators for two draft picks. Fisher would go on to post eight points in the team's final seven regular-season games to secure a playoff berth, then lead the team with six points in six contests during their first playoff series victory in franchise history.

February 26, 2011: Brentwood, Tenn., native and Predators 2006 second-round pick Blake Geoffrion made his NHL debut, becoming the first Tennessee native and first fourth-generation NHLer to appear in the League. He scored his first goal two games later at Edmonton and became the youngest player in franchise history to notch a hat trick in his 11th career NHL game on March 20 at Buffalo.

April 20, 2011: General Manager David Poile is the first of four in the organization to earn a nomination for the 2011 NHL Awards, becoming the finalist for the GM of the Year Award in each of its first two years of existence. Two days later, Pekka Rinne is nominated for the Vezina Trophy, followed by Shea Weber being named a finalist for the Norris Trophy three days later. Head Coach Barry Trotz capped the parade to Las Vegas with his second straight Jack Adams nomination four days later, giving Nashville the second-most nominees at the Awards show.

FRANCHISE TIMELINE

April 22, 2011: Nashville's spring of "firsts" began as Jerred Smithson scored at 1:57 of overtime to lift the Predators to a 4-3 victory at the Honda Center in Anaheim. It was the Predators' first playoff overtime victory, first Game 5 victory and the first time winning three games in a playoff year. In Game 6, the Predators topped the Ducks, 4-2, at Bridgestone Arena to win their first playoff series in franchise history.

April 30, 2011: Predators rookie forward Matt Halischuk ended Game 2 of the Western Conference Semifinals at 14:51 of double overtime, putting a shot over Vancouver goaltender Roberto Luongo's glove for a 2-1 win at Rogers Arena. The win tied the series at 1-1.

May 3, 2011: The Predators played their first game in the month of May before a sell-out crowd of 17,113 at Bridgestone Arena.

November 3, 2011: On his 29th birthday, goaltender Pekka Rinne signed a seven-year, $49 million contract, then proceeded to shut out the Phoenix Coyotes that night, stopping 35 shots in a 3-0 victory.

November 12, 2011: The franchise played its 1,000th regular-season NHL game against the Montreal Canadiens. POSTSEASON NOTES

SIX IN A ROW

• The Nashville Predators qualified for the postseason for the sixth consecutive season, extending the longest streak in franchise history. It was the team's 13th postseason appearance in its 22-season history.

• Nashville is one of three teams to make the postseason in each of the last six seasons, joining Pittsburgh (14) and Washington (6).

STANLEY CUP QUALIFIERS

• The Predators participated in the 2020 Stanley Cup Qualifiers by virtue of finishing sixth in the Western Conference in point percentage at .565 (78 points and a 35-26-8 regular-season record).

• Nashville took on the No. 11-seeded Arizona in the Qualifying Round, the first best-of-five postseason series in franchise history.

• The Predators served as the "home" team in Games 1-2 and as the "road" team in Games 3-4, with all games being played at Rogers Place in Edmonton, Alta.

SAROS EARNS THE POSTSEASON NET

• Juuse Saros started all four of Nashville's postseason games, becoming the first goaltender other than Pekka Rinne to start a playoff contest for Nashville since Dan Ellis in 2008.

• The Forssa, Finland, native earned his first career postseason victory in Game 2 and became the fifth different goaltender in Predators history to record a playoff win.

• Saros started both games of a back-to-back for the first time in his NHL career in Games 2-3.

"JOFA" REUNITED

• Nashville's top line of Ryan Johansen, Filip Forsberg and Viktor Arvidsson skated together in all four of Nashville's postseason games and combined for 13 points (7g-6a).

• Forsberg (3g-2a) and Johansen (1g-4a) tied for the Predators lead in points with five each; Arvidsson and Forsberg tied for the team lead in goals with three.

• The trio also featured prominently on Nashville's power play, picking up seven points (3g-4a).

FORSBERG FINDS HIS POWER

• Filip Forsberg tallied two multi-point games, including a two-goal performance in Game 1 in which he became the first player in Predators postseason history to score twice on the power play in the same contest.

• He tallied a point in three of Nashville's four games and tied for the series lead in points with five (3g-2a).

• Forsberg recorded his fifth career multi-goal performance in the postseason, the most in Nashville history.

• He scored with 32 seconds left in Game 4 to tie the game at 3-3 and send it to overtime.

QUICK HITS

• The Predators went 4-for-14 (28.6 percent) on the power play, scoring a goal on the man-advantage in three of their four contests.

• Roman Josi tied for the series lead in points by a defenseman with four (4a). He fired seven shots in the third period of Game 4, the shots by a player in a single period in Preds playoff history.

• Calle Jarnkrok scored the game-winning goal in Game 2, the first of his postseason career.

• Nashville outshot Arizona 163-125 in the series and fired at least 40 shots in three games, including a series-high 52 in Game 4.

• Filip Forsberg extended his franchise lead in postseason goals (26) and points (49); Ryan Johansen overtook the franchise's all-time postseason assists lead with 28; Josi passed Mike Fisher for the most postseason appearances by a skater in team history (75).

2020 STANLEY CUP QUALIFIERS

NASHVILLE PREDATORS VS. ARIZONA COYOTES | 2020 QUALIFYING ROUND

GAME 1 - Arizona 4, Nashville 3 (Aug. 2 @ Rogers Place)

The Nashville Predators closed the gap on a three-goal, first-period deficit, but it wasn't enough, as the Arizona Coyotes claimed Game 1 of their Qualifying Round series, 4-3. Arizona scored each of the game's first three goals in the opening period, as Oliver Ekman-Larsson, Christian Dvorak and Clayton Keller all beat Preds netminder Juuse Saros, who made his first career postseason start. Filip Forsberg scored twice on the power play and Ryan Ellis added a goal 30 seconds into the third period, but Coyotes goaltender Darcy Kuemper stood tall, denying the Predators on 40 of their 43 shots. Michael Grabner scored the game-winning goal while shorthanded in the second period to help Arizona jump out to a 1-0 series lead.

GAME 2 - Arizona 2, Nashville 4 (Aug. 4 @ Rogers Place)

The Nashville Predators opened up a 4-0 lead on the Arizona Coyotes and claimed a 4-2 victory in Game 2 to even their best-of-five series at 1-1. Juuse Saros made 24 saves for his first career postseason victory and the Predators forwards supplied the firepower, receiving goals from four different skaters. Nick Bonino got Nashville on the scoreboard in the first and Ryan Johansen followed that up with his first of the postseason minutes later. In the second, Calle Jarnkrok scored what stood as the game-winning goal, the first of his postseason career, to push the Preds to a 3-0 lead after the second; Nashville improved to 31-3 all-time in postseason games in which it held a lead through two periods. Viktor Arvidsson scored his first of the postseason to open the scoring in the third, and despite two late goals from the Coyotes to spoil Saros' shutout bid, the Predators left Game 2 victorious.

GAME 3 - Nashville 1, Arizona 4 (Aug. 5 @ Rogers Place)

Playing in their first back-to-back in the postseason since 2004, the Predators dropped a 4-1 decision to the Coyotes in Game 3, giving Arizona a 2-1 series lead. The Predators did just about everything but find the back of the net in the opening 20 minutes, as Arizona netminder Darcy Kuemper stopped all 19 Nashville shots he faced. Instead, the Coyotes scored on their first shot of the game - a redirection from Christian Dvorak - and took a 1-0 lead into the intermission. Nashville remained on the attack despite the setback, and in the second period, Ryan Johansen stole the puck from two Coyotes in the neutral zone and started an odd-man rush. Filip Forsberg then slipped a pass over to Viktor Arvidsson, who tallied his second goal in as many days with a slap shot to even the score at 1-1. A third-period goal by Taylor Hall put the game out of reach and pushed Nashville to the brink of elimination.

GAME 4 (OT) - Nashville 3, Arizona 4 (Aug. 7 @ Rogers Place)

Nashville's season came to an end with a 4-3 overtime loss to Arizona in Game 5. Brad Richardson ended the game and the series at 5:27 of overtime, giving the Coyotes a 3-1 series win. Arizona jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but second-period goals from Matt Duchene and Viktor Arvidsson saw the game knotted at two heading into the third period. Jordan Oesterle scored for Arizona at 4:21 of the third, but Filip Forsberg forced overtime with his third goal of the series with just 32 seconds left in regulation, tying the game at 3-3. Nashville had four shots on goal in overtime, but Richardson slotted home the series-ending goal past Saros from just inside the slot.

MEDIA INFORMATION

NASHVILLE PREDATORS COMMUNICATIONS

PRESS INFORMATION

Inquiries about the Predators may be directed to Kevin Wilson (kwilson@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2335), Nick Barnowski (nbarnowski@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2126) or Emily Polanowicz (epolanowicz@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2347) of the club's communications department.

CREDENTIALS

In order to properly maintain social distancing, we will be operating under considerable space restrictions in the press box this season. The Predators will not be issuing full-season credentials and all media members must apply for credentials on a game-by-game basis. To do so, please email Nick Barnowski with your request NO LATER THAN 10 a.m. CT the day prior to the game in question.

An RSVP will be required for training camp practices, morning skates and practices as well. Please email Nick Barnowski with your request NO LATER THAN 5 p.m. CT the day prior to the morning skate or practice in question.

MEDIA ENTRY & ACCESS TO BRIDGESTONE ARENA

Media members will continue to access Bridgestone Arena through the entrance located on the ground floor of the Sixth Avenue garage. Media members can enter the building 15 minutes before practices and morning skates and 30 minutes before warmups for games. Prior to arrival at Bridgestone Arena, media members are strongly urged to check their own symptoms. If you do not feel well, we ask that you please stay home and inform a Predators Communications staff member that you will not be attending the event in question.

Following successful completion of the health screening procedures, you will take the nearest elevator up to Level 4 and proceed to the press box area in sections 310-312. This area houses the press box, media lounge, and men's and women's restrooms.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Credentials for photographers will also be processed on a game-by-game basis. Please submit your request to BOTH Nick Barnowski and John Russell (john.a.russell@vanderbilt.edu) NO LATER THAN 10 a.m. CT the day prior to the game in question.

Space will be limited, with both spots on the glass and at elevated positions on the 100-level available for use each game. All photographers must access their designated photo spot from the 100-level concourse, work only from that spot and only leave their position to use the restroom or leave the arena.

PRESS BOX & RADIO/TV BOOTHS

The Bridgestone Arena press box is located in Sections 310 (television and radio broadcasts), 311 (home and visiting beat writers) and 312 (local TV crews, scouts, other media), and can be reached from the event level by taking the elevators/freight elevator near the Zamboni entrance to Level 4. Proceed to your left out of the elevators, and the press box is three sections down.

WIRELESS INTERNET SERVICE

Wireless internet is available to media throughout Bridgestone Arena. The password can be obtained through the Predators communications staff. For technical assistance, please contact Michael Paul (mpaul@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2196).

NASHVILLE PREDATORS PRESSBOX PAGE

NashvillePredators.com/Pressbox is a media resource page which contains team publications; in-game and postgame notes, quotes and audio files; online news links; daily stats reports and game notes; and other valuable information. Access to the site is available through the Predators communications department.

NON-GAME DAY MEDIA REQUESTS

All media availabilities and interviews will be done on Zoom or through a phone call. It is important that you communicate directly with a Predators Communications representative with your interview requests in a timely manner. We will make every effort to make requested players available following practices or on off days. All one-on-one interviews must be facilitated through a member of the Predators Communications staff.

POSTGAME

In accordance with NHL media regulations, all postgame interviews will be completed via Zoom approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. We will make every effort to accommodate postgame requests, but players will be chosen as the discretion of the Predators Communications staff and one-on-one interviews postgame will not be facilitated.

Head Coach John Hynes will hold his postgame press conference via Zoom at the conclusion of all player availabilities. Links to join the Zoom interviews will be emailed out by our staff prior to the end of each game.

MEDIA HOSPITALITY

Due to health and safety precautions, we will no longer offer light refreshments and beverages at morning skates. Complimentary pre-packaged dinner, snacks and beverages will be available for media members to pick up in the upstairs media lounge on game nights. A maximum of two media members will be allowed in the lounge at one time, and we ask that you return to your seat to consume.

BETWEEN-PERIOD TV INTERVIEWS

Requests are to be made before or during the morning skate. A communications representative will be on hand to assist with all requests.

INJURY REPORTS

Predators General Manager David Poile, Head Coach John Hynes and communications personnel are the only Predators representatives who will offer comments on player injuries or injury updates.

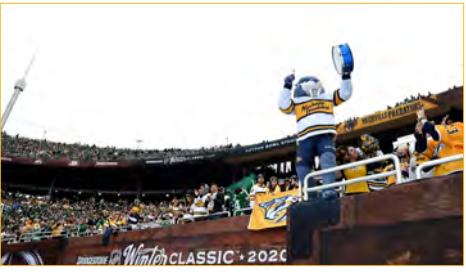
2020 BRIDGESTONE NHL WINTER CLASSIC

The Nashville Predators took part in one of the NHL's signature events during the 2019-20 season - the 2020 Bridgestone NHL Winter Classic, held on New Year's Day at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Texas, against the Dallas Stars.

Despite a 4-2 loss on the ice that featured Nashville goals by Matt Duchene and Dante Fabbro and a penalty-shot save by Pekka Rinne, it was an event to remember for the entire Predators organization. Attendance for the game was 85,630, the second-largest crowd to ever watch an NHL game, with more than 20,000 sporting Predators Gold, the highest total the League has ever seen from a visiting team for an outdoor game. In addition to the wave of Predators fans in the Cotton Bowl stands, the organization also took every employee and their families to the game to complete a once-in-a-lifetime road trip.



2016 NHL ALL-STAR WEEKEND

NASHVILLE HOSTS THE 2016 NHL ALL-STAR WEEKEND

On Oct. 17, 2014, the National Hockey League announced that the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena had been selected to host the 2016 NHL All-Star Weekend, the League's multi-day, mid-season showcase. The 2016 NHL All-Star Weekend was held on Jan. 30-31, and included a fan fair, the NHL All-Star Skills competition and the NHL All-Star Game.

The event was packed with many firsts and surprises, from country music stars making an appearance during the All-Star Skills Competition, to a new 3-on-3 format for the All-Star Game. Outside of hockey, the Music City Center hosted the fan fair, and the plaza outside of Bridgestone Arena was home to four days of outdoor concerts in beautiful weather and a stunning red-carpet event that was attended by tens of thousands. It was considered one of, if not the best, NHL All-Star Weekends in League history, with an economic impact of $25 million for the city.

2016 NHL ALL-STAR WEEKEND QUICK HITS

- It was just the sixth time that the NHL All-Star Game had been hosted in the southern United States and the first time since 2011.
- Country Music Hall of Fame member Vince Gill was named "Mayor of Smashville" for the event and longtime Predators broadcaster Terry Crisp was named "Vice Mayor of Smashville."
- Attendance at Saturday night's All-Star Skills Competition and Sunday's NHL All-Star Game was at a peak of 17,113 people. There were also concerts and Winter Park happening just outside of Bridgestone Arena; combined concert attendance throughout the multi-day event was 59,000 people.
- Along with bringing in numerous fans of the NHL, 5,000 room nights were rented out during the multi-day event for NHL officials, team executives and international media.
- The All-Star Game was the most-watched and highest-rated in NBC's history (1.194 million average; 1.89 million peak).
- Merchandise sales were amongst the best the NHL has ever seen for an All-Star Weekend.
- The Fan Fair, presented by Bridgestone, was held in the Music City Center and provided opportunities for fans to take photos with the Stanley Cup, meeting and getting autographs from players and take part in interactive booths throughout the weekend.
- The Nashville Players had a NHL-high four players participate in the event - Roman Josi, James Neal, Pekka Rinne and Shea Weber.

2016 NHL ALL-STAR WEEKEND DREW UNIVERSAL PRAISE

"One of the things that I know happens in Nashville, Tenn., is that they know how to put on major events, and they do it right. I think Nashville set the bar really, really high... It's going to be very, very hard for the next cities to match what Nashville did here."

- Former Predators Head Coach Barry Trotz

"Nashville glowed Predators gold this weekend, and the whole hockey world got to see it. From the star-studded entertainment to the high-energy arena atmosphere, our city wowed visitors from NHL cities across the continent and did our team proud."

- Jessica Bliss, Tennessean

FORD ICE CENTER ANTIOCH

FORD ICE ANTIOCH

Ford Ice Center Antioch, which opened for public use in August 2014, was built as a provision of the June 2012 lease agreement between the city of Nashville and Bridgestone Arena. A component of the public-private partnership between Metro and the Nashville Predators, Ford Ice Center Antioch was built to help continue the growth of hockey and skating in Middle Tennessee. The facility's central location helps generate local economic development, which in turn increases the demand for nearby lodging, dining, shopping and entertainment.

Ford Ice Center Antioch houses two sheets of ice, eight locker rooms, four party rooms and more, providing an opportunity for players of all levels and ages more opportunities to participate in hockey and ice skating. Ford Ice Center Antioch is also connected to a six-acre park; this provides ample outdoor space for dry-land training opportunities for a variety of work outs.

In addition to housing the Predators' youth hockey initiatives such as Get Out and Learn! (G.O.A.L!), Ford Ice Center Antioch is home to the Scott Hamilton Skating Academy. Hamilton, a longtime Franklin, Tenn., resident and Olympic Gold Medalist, helps develop the curriculum, make staffing decisions for the Academy and more.

Ford Ice Center Antioch is also home to youth and adult hockey leagues, public skates and multiple learn-to-skate programs. The facility has also hosted two NHL Prospects Showcase tournaments, with the most recent coming in 2019, offering area hockey fans the chance to see future NHL stars on the Predators, Carolina Hurricanes, Tampa Bay Lightning and Washington Capitals. Ford Ice Center Antioch has also hosted several national USA Hockey adult league tournaments and skating showcases, in addition to national and regional events such as the 2019 NWHL All-Star Weekend and the 2017 U.S. Figure Skating Eastern Great Lakes Regional Figure Skating Championships.

Tenants

Nashville Predators youth and adult hockey; Scott Hamilton Skating Academy; Scott Hamilton Skating Club; Preds Select; Nashville Jr. Predators; Middle Tennessee State University Club Hockey; GNASH (High School Hockey) and 7Element Hockey

Fast Facts

- Two rinks (North Rink, South Rink)
- Eight locker rooms
- Outdoor street hockey area
- Off-ice training space featuring three hockey shooting lanes with synthetic ice, cardio equipment and dry-land training
- Concession stand

Perani's Hockey World

Ford Ice Center Antioch's pro shop is operated by Perani's Hockey World, one of the premier hockey shops in the United States. The Nashville location is Perani's 24th retail store and its first in the southeast. In addition to operating 24 retail stores, Perani's runs an E-commerce business that is one of the largest in North America and is dedicated to offering their customers the best customer service, the lowest prices and largest product selection. It's the Toy Store for the hockey player!

FORD ICE CENTER BELLEVUE

Ford Ice Center Bellevue opened to the public in October 2019 and serves as the second ice facility the Predators operate, alongside Ford Ice Center Antioch, which opened five years prior. The facility, located within One Bellevue Place, was created via a partnership with members of the Metro Government of Nashville and Davidson County Office of the Mayor; Sports Authority of the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County; and the Metro Board of Parks and Recreation with a goal of continuing to grow the sport of hockey in Middle Tennessee. The development was announced in March 2017 and work began at the site for the first time in June 2018.

The 110,000-square-foot facility - nearly 20,000 square-feet larger than its counterpart in Antioch - is home to two sheets of ice with room for more than 1,000 spectators on one rink and more than 500 on the other. Both rinks feature a state-of-the-art ice plant system by Cimco as well as two brand-new electric Zambonis, the only ones of its kind in Tennessee. The facility is also home to "Draft Picks," a full-service bar and restaurant; a Twice Daily convenience store; a Perani's Hockey World retail outlet; workout space for hockey players and figure skaters; and private party rooms available for rental.

Ford Ice Center Bellevue hosts many youth and adult hockey tournaments as well as tenants that include the Scott Hamilton Skating Academy and the Nashville Jr. Predators AAA hockey program. Staples of the Predators' youth and adult hockey offerings, such as G.O.A.L!, Little Preds Learn to Play and PREDecessor, are also offered at the facility.

In its first year of existence, Ford Ice Center Bellevue hosted numerous world-class events that have featured teams and athletes from all over the world, including the 2019 Country Classic, which featured four of the NCAA's top 10 women's teams. In addition to the Predators using Ford Ice Center Bellevue as a practice rink in January 2020, it will also serve as a training facility for the 2022 U.S. Figure Skating Championships and hosts the Southeastern College Hockey Conference Tournament each year. Prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, which shut the facility down for nearly four months, Bellevue was on track to welcome more than 1 million visitors since opening its doors for the first time.

The facility is a finishing touch to an already elaborate development at One Bellevue Place and couldn't have happened without the NHL, NHLPA, the Nashville Predators, the Sports Authority and the city of Bellevue working together to continue the prosperity of an already-thriving Metro Board of Parks and Recreation department.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY MULTI-PURPOSE EVENT CENTER

Nearly 11 months after the grand opening of Ford Ice Center Bellevue, representatives from the Nashville Predators and Montgomery County broke ground on a new development that will further grow the sport of hockey and bring entertainment to downtown Clarksville, Tenn., for generations to come - the Montgomery County Multi-Purpose Event Center.

Galvanized by the vision of the Mayor of Montgomery County, Jim Durrett, and the Predators organization, led by President and CEO Sean Henry, the Multi-Purpose Event Center is scheduled to open in the fall of 2022.

The Predators will manage the 250,000-square-foot facility and will be responsible for its overall day-to-day operations. Additionally, the Predators will be charged with booking the facility and finding all the appropriate sponsors and partners to bring the venue to life and make it flourish.

The Multi-Purpose Event Center's primary tenant will be Austin Peay State University, whose men's and women's basketball teams will call the facility home. In addition to the facility's main, flexible event space - which will be able to host sporting events, concerts, banquets, conventions, trade shows and other events - the multi-level venue will feature a separate sheet of ice that will be used for youth and adult hockey leagues and figure skating.

The main arena bowl will also be able to add an ice surface, giving it the ability to host hockey tournaments and attract larger on-ice events or competitions much like the existing

Ford Ice Centers in Antioch and Bellevue. Using these ice sheets, the Predators will offer a variety of learn-to-skate programs at the facility, continuing their mission to expose and grow hockey to more Middle Tennessee residents.

It also will contain luxury suites, premium seating, private hospitality space, party rooms and common areas that will have full access to the arena bowl. The Austin Peay men's and women's basketball teams will move their coaches' offices and training facilities to the venue, which will also house their practice courts.

The Multi-Purpose Event Center will hold roughly 6,000 fans for concerts; 5,500 for basketball games; and 5,000 for hockey games. Fans can follow the progress and stay up-to-date on everything relating to the Montgomery County Multi-Purpose Event Center by following @MoCoMPEC on both Twitter and Instagram.

CENTENNIAL SPORTSPLEX

The Thomas Frist Centennial Sportsplex is operated by the Metro Board of Parks and Recreation in Nashville. The facility was made possible by a landmark land exchange between Metro Parks and healthcare provider Hospital Corporation of America (HCA). The city exchanged 10 prime acres adjacent to Centennial Park for $12 million. The money was used to build the Sportsplex. During the summer of 2014, the ice arena at Centennial Sportsplex underwent major renovations, including replacing the ice coolant systems and installing new dasher boards and glass at Rink B.

The $20 million, 145,000-square-foot Sportsplex features a tennis center, a fitness center, an aquatics center and two full-size ice rinks. The aquatics center, named after Olympian Tracy Caulkins, has been the site of numerous U.S. Senior and Junior National Swim Meets, the YMCA National Swim Meet and, to date, still holds one of the fastest times ever swam for the men's 50-meter freestyle, set in the inaugural swim meet in February 1990 by Olympian Tom Jager.

The ice arena opened on Jan. 2, 1990, with one sheet, and a second sheet was added on Feb. 1, 1999. It is home to the Nashville Predators' practice facility, the Nashville Youth Hockey League, Nashville Skating Academy and the Nashville Figure Skating Club. The building holds offices for the Predators' coaching staff and hockey operations department, a full dressing room, weight room and an athletic training section.

PREDATORS NAME, LOGO & SWEATER HISTORY

NASHVILLE PREDATORS

The Nashville Predators unveiled their logo, a saber-toothed tiger, in Nashville's downtown First American Center on Sept. 25, 1997, 26 years after a fang and foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger were found in a cave just below the building's address. In May 1971, excavation began at the downtown Nashville site of what today is the 28-story UBS Tower. Further digging revealed a cave containing the nine-inch fang and a foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger, extinct for at least 10,000 years. Radiocarbon tests revealed that it could have possibly been one of the last of its breed to exist. Scientists believe that some time during the last glacial period (15,000-80,000 years ago), part of the cave was the den of the saber-toothed tiger.

The discovery, made in August 1971, marked only the fifth of its kind in North America. For more than 35 years, the prehistoric artifacts were housed in the building above their excavation site, until November 2016, when they were presented to the team for housing inside Bridgestone Arena.

The saber-toothed tiger logo was co-designed by JDK Design of Burlington; Vermont and Dye; and Van Mol & Lawrence of Nashville. The naming of the Predators was a direct reflection of the fans of Nashville and their choice. During the public events and through focus groups and related surveys, fans selected the name "Predators" by a two-to-one margin over the second choice. On Nov. 13, 1997, the saber-toothed tiger logo as unveiled for the first time with the Predators insignia attached to it. A few months later on Feb. 12, 1998, then-Head Coach Barry Trotz and Assistant Coach Paul Gardner unveiled the Predators' inaugural home and away jerseys at Cool Springs Galleria.

On Nov. 21, 2001, the Predators debuted a third jersey with a 4-3 win over the Chicago Blackhawks at Bridgestone Arena. The jersey featured an "animated" saber-toothed logo on the crest and tiger skulls on the shoulders. It was retired following the 2006-07 season.

For the 2007-08 season, the Predators, along with the other 29 teams, introduced the Reebok EDGE Uniform System to future meet the performance demands of the players. The Predators debuted a new third jersey on Nov. 27, 2009 against the St. Louis Blues. The sweaters, which featured a vintage-inspired lace-up front, a subtle checkerboard pattern lining the bottom of the jersey and a bolder and more simplified color scheme, were worn for two seasons and retired ahead of the 2011-12 season, making way for the first logo and color scheme redesign in franchise history.

The logo and uniforms for the 2011-12 season were designed to develop a powerful, long-term brand message and help infuse new life into the Nashville Predators' brand with a more contemporary, aggressive and streamlined logo while still maintaining the basic "Pred Head" concept. A new secondary logo was also designed to represent the state flag of Tennessee and Nashville's Music City heritage, with a guitar pick shape incorporating the three starts of the state's three grand divisions - West, Middle and East. The "Predator Gold" sweaters create a distinct, dominant and bold look that balances traditional elements of classic uniforms with those unique to Nashville - guitar strings in the numbering and lettering, fangs in the neck area and piano keys on the inside of the collars.

Another redesign came for the 2017-18 season as adidas unveiled new ADIZERO authentic NHL jerseys and uniforms for all 31 NHL teams. The lighter, cooler and stronger designed help solidify the team's visual identity within the league by placing more emphasis on the Preds' signature Gold. The adidas design team worked with the Predators on both the home and away uniforms to simplify them and use the signature Gold in a bolder and more prevalent way. In addition, the sleeve numbers were adjusted to include the same six-string graphic motif as the current back numbers.

PREDATORS LOGO & SWEATER HISTORY

On Nov. 13, 1997, the saber-toothed tiger logo was unveiled for the first time. During the inaugural season, the shoulder logo (an 'N' featuring the Bridgestone Arena spire) included the first year of the team's existence. In the 2005-06 season, the original shoulder patch was replaced by the skull logo originally worn on the Predators alternate jersey.

During the 2007-08 season, the Predators and the other 29 NHL teams introduced the Reebok EDGE Uniform system. This new uniform incorporated a new form-fitting material for a modern look that revolutionized the NHL jersey.

On Nov. 27, 2009, the Predators debuted a new third jersey which featured a vintage-inspired lace-up front, a subtle checkerboard pattern lining the bottom of the jersey, and a bolder-and-more-simplified color scheme. The uniform also featured a fresh-take on the Pred Head, with the main logo taking on a "flat" look with navy, blue and black colors and the first red saber-toothed tiger eye.

PREDATORS LOGO & SWEATER HISTORY

Beginning in the 2011-12 season, the Predators unveiled their new Gold Reebok jerseys. These jerseys featured a more contemporary, aggressive and streamlined logo that still maintained the basic Pred Head concept. A new secondary logo was also designed to represent the state flag of Tennessee and Nashville's Music city heritage simultaneously, with a guitar pick shape incorporating the three stars of the state's three grand divisions - West, Middle and East. These sweaters create a distinctive, dominant, bold look that balanced traditional elements of classic uniforms with those unique to Nashville - guitar strings in the numbering and lettering, fangs in the neck area and piano keys on the inside of the collars.

INTRODUCED: 2011 | RETIRED: 2017

The 2017-18 season brought new uniforms designed by adidas for all 31 NHL franchises. The new ADIZERO jerseys kept the familiar gold as the primary color and expanded the celebration of Music city with the piano keys around the inside of the collar and guitar pick alternate logo remaining on the right shoulder and guitar strings over the back numbers extended to the arm numbers as well. These jerseys are lighter and cooler with new Clima technology that makes it 19 percent lighter and 133 percent more permeable than fabrics currently used on the ice.

Nashville Predators

The Nashville Predators unveiled a new, retro-oriented jersey to mark their appearance in the 2020 Bridgestone NHL Winter Classic. The new jersey, which made its on-ice debut on Jan. 1 at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Texas, was created with a heritage aesthetic, featuring designs inspired by Nashville's hockey history and its passionate fanbase. The script crest, felt block lettering and classic striping created a nostalgic look that personified the Winter Classic's celebration of the game's outdoor origins.

INTRODUCED: 2020 | RETIRED: 2020

Ahead of the 2020-21 NHL season, the Nashville Predators and adidas unveiled their Reverse Retro uniform as part of the first-ever League-wide alternate jersey program. The uniform pays homage to the set worn during the team's first NHL season in 1998-99 and combines features of Nashville's hockey history with its current colors and feel. The speed nicks in the numbers, striping pattern, silver touches and remastered crest all work in tribute to the original Preds jersey, while the bold, GOLD body offers a new interpretation of the design.

NASHVILLE HOCKEY HISTORY

In the spring of 1962, a small group of businessmen led by David Patterson put up $125,000 to place a team in the Eastern Hockey League. The Dixie Flyers, named after a passenger train said to be the oldest in the South, were placed in the nine-team league. The purple-and-gold colored Flyers played their first regular-season home game (a 2-0 loss to Knoxville) on Oct. 27, 1962 at the Municipal Auditorium. The Flyers endured a rough opening season, winning 16 games and qualifying for the playoffs, only to be swept in three games by Greensboro. However, it didn't take long for the Flyers to make their presence felt.

After losing in the 1965 Finals, the Flyers went on to win EHL Walker Cup championships in 1966 and 1967, the only two professional ice hockey titles in the city's history. John McLellan, who went on to coach the Toronto Maple Leafs, coached the Flyers. The Flyers swept each of their three playoff series' in 1966. They won the championship by going 11-0 in the playoffs and becoming the first team in minor league ice hockey ever to march through the playoffs undefeated.

In 1967, Patterson's group sold the team to a business group headed by Mark Parrish. The Cinderella '69 team reached the Finals, but lost in seven tough games to the Clinton (N.Y.) Comets in the Walker Cup Finals. Shortly after, the Flyers' attendance slipped dramatically. Barely able to scrape up enough funds to start the 1970-71 campaign, the Flyers folded following the season.

Hockey returned to Nashville when baseball guru Larry Schmittou, who brought minor league baseball back to Nashville in 1978 after a 15-year absence, did the same for hockey in July 1981. Thus the South Stars were founded, a team that played in the Central Hockey League and had the Minnesota North Stars as its NHL affiliate. The logo was a hockey player swinging a guitar representing the Music City while using yellow, orange and green.

The 1981-82 team finished fourth in its division and lost to Wichita, 3-0, in the first round of the playoffs. Gene Ubriaco, who went on to coach the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins and 1992 Italian Olympic team, coached the Stars.

Under new ownership (Randy Van Meter), the Stars pulled out of the CHL in 1982 and entered the old Atlantic Coast Hockey League (ACHL), playing teams geographically closer to Nashville. The Stars finished 11-43-4 and suffered through a season of low attendance. They began the following season, only to fold in December 1983.

Two Knoxville wrestling promoters, Bob Polk and Ron Fuller, rescued the sport five years later. They purchased an East Coast Hockey League franchise in January 1989. The Knights, with popular ex-South Stars player Archie Henderson as coach, attracted an astonishing 150,000 fans their first season (1989-90). While wearing red and blue uniforms adorned with the logo of a knight's mask, they made the playoffs but lost in the first round. During the 1990-91 season, Peter Horachek, former Predators assistant coach, served as the Knights' head coach and director of hockey operations.

The Knights went through three ownership changes in their seven-year history. They twice went to the semifinals of the ECHL playoffs - in 1993 under ex-NHL standout and coach Nick Fotiu, and in 1995 under coach Mark Kumpel. Perhaps the top Knights highlight came during the 1992-93 season when Trevor Jobe scored what is still a minor hockey league record 85 goals, with 76 assists, for 161 points and 12 hat tricks in his MVP season. In the spring of 1996, after failed negotiations for a lease agreement with the Auditorium, the Knights departed to Pensacola, Fla. There, they were renamed the Ice Pilots.

Hockey was revived again with the arrival of the NightHawks in the fall of 1996. The Central Hockey League team only won 12 games, the worst in CHL history. The red-and-blue NightHawks' logo was a hawk showing its claws. Nashvillian Mike Friedman purchased the team in the summer of 1997. In a renewed salute to the old Dixie Flyers, Friedman changed both the name to the Ice Flyers and the colors to blue and gray. David Lohrie led the team to a 41-win season and a second-place finish in the CHL East and was named coach of the year. The team lost in the semi-finals to the eventual CHL Champ Columbus in April 1998. The impending arrival of the Predators led Friedman to move the franchise to Albany, Ga.

This closed the book on three separate chapters, a combined 21 years, of minor league hockey in Nashville, starting and ending with the team named the Flyers. Former Predators President Jack Diller is well aware and appreciative of Nashville's hockey pioneers.

"The team and sport obviously made a significant impact on many people here in Middle Tennessee. Other teams such as the South Stars, Knights, NightHawks and Ice Flyers also enjoyed varying degrees of success – all of which helped fuel the excitement for the NHL and arrival of the Predators," Diller said.
